23 §149. Article 49. Depositions

24 A. ~~At any time after charges have been signed, as provided in R.S. 29:130,~~
25 ~~any party may take oral or written depositions unless the military judge or court-~~
26 ~~martial without a military judge hearing the case, or if the case is not being heard,~~
27 ~~an authority competent to convene a court-martial for the trial of those charges~~
28 ~~forbids it for good cause. If a deposition is to be taken before charges are referred~~ 29 ~~for trial, such an authority may designate commissioned officers to represent the~~
30 ~~prosecution and the defense and may authorize those officers to take the deposition~~

1 ~~of any witness.~~ (1) A convening authority or a military judge may order depositions
2 at the request of any party. A deposition may be ordered only if the requesting party
3 demonstrates that, due to exceptional circumstances, it is in the best interest of 4 justice that the testimony of a prospective witness be preserved for use at a court-
5 martial, court of inquiry, or other military court or board.

23 ~~civil officer authorized by the laws of this state or by the laws of the place where the~~ 24 ~~deposition is taken to administer oaths. A deposition order under Subsection A of~~
25 this Article does not control the admissibility of the deposition in the court-martial
26 or other proceeding under this Code.

27 ~~D. A duly authenticated deposition taken upon reasonable notice to the other~~
28 ~~parties, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be read in~~

4 ~~imprisonment, military necessity, nonamenability to process, or other reasonable~~
5 ~~cause, is unable or refuses to appear and testify in person at the place of trial or~~
6 ~~hearing; or~~

7 ~~(3) that the present whereabouts of the witness is unknown.~~

8 §150. Article 50. Admissibility of sworn testimony from records of courts of 14 in evidence by any party before a court-martial if the accused was a party before the 15 court of inquiry and if the same issue was involved or if the accused consents to the 16 introduction of such evidence.

17 B. Such testimony may be read in evidence only by the defense in cases
18 extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer.

19 C. Such testimony may also be read in evidence before a court of inquiry or 20 a military board.
