1 AN ACT

2 To provide for the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of framing a new 3 constitution; to place restrictions on the convention and to limit the convention to the 4 consideration and submission of matters related to certain specified fiscal and related 5 subjects; to provide for legislative findings; to fix the time and place for the 6 convention; to provide for the qualifications and election and appointment of 7 delegates; to create a constitutional convention Evaluation and Drafting Committee 8 and provide for preparations and planning for the convention, including a draft of a 9 proposed constitution; to provide for the organization and staff of the convention; to 11 provisions, be submitted to the qualified electors for adoption and to provide relative 12 to such submission; to provide for penalties for violations relating to elections; to 13 require appropriation of funds for the convention and provide with respect to 14 convention funds; to fix the effective date of the new constitution if approved by the 15 electorate; and to provide for related matters.

16 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

17 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that:

18 (A) It has been more than forty-two years since the Constitution of Louisiana
19 became effective at midnight on December 31, 1974, and during these years the document 20 which constitutes the state's basic law has been amended some one hundred eighty-six times.

1 (B) The need to address a number of key policy areas that require constitutional 2 change has become apparent, including such matters as the state's tax structure and 3 budgetary practices that hamper the state's economic growth and competitiveness as well as 4 the quality of life of Louisiana residents; the dedication of state revenues and the resulting 5 inability of the legislature to allocate resources where needed, particularly for the needs of 6 health care and higher education; the fiscal restraints on local governments that dramatically 7 limit their authority to meet fiscal and budgetary demands; and other matters.

8 (C) The constitution today contains many provisions that restrict the legislature in 9 effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and the document also includes extensive 10 provisions that are so detailed as to be statutory rather than constitutional in nature and, as 11 a result, require further constitutional amendment when any change is needed.

12 (D) A serious analysis and revision of the state constitution is needed if the state is 13 to conduct a genuine examination of the state's critical needs, to undertake an in-depth 14 consideration of reform proposals, and to craft provisions that allow for flexibility and 15 innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present and the future.

16 Section 2. Evaluation and Drafting Committee. (A) The Evaluation and Drafting 17 Committee is hereby created. The purpose of the committee shall be to evaluate and 18 determine if a constitutional convention is needed to address the needs of the state and its 19 people and, if it determines that a convention is needed, to develop and propose a plan for 20 the conduct of an effective constitutional convention, including, subject to the limitations
21 provided by Section 6 of this Act, a draft of a proposed constitution with alternative 22 proposals for provisions addressing significant policy areas.

23 (B)(1) The Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be composed of twenty-seven 14 convention, except that if a different termination date is provided in the rules of the 15 convention, the Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be dissolved on that date.

16 However, if the Evaluation and Drafting Committee determines that a convention is not 17 necessary, the Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be dissolved upon adjournment sine

21 and obey the limitation of authority contained in the Act under which this convention has 22 assembled. So help me God."

23 (2) No delegate shall be qualified to serve as such unless and until he has taken and

11 Representatives and Senate staffs as designated by the presiding officers of the legislature 12 shall prepare a draft of rules of procedure for consideration, amendment, and adoption by 13 the convention when it convenes. Such proposed rules shall be based upon the rules of the 14 constitutional convention convened in 1973, except as inconsistent with the provisions of 15 this Act. The rules of procedure adopted by the convention shall be subject to later change 16 as the delegates shall provide therein. No delegate shall be allowed to vote by proxy and the 17 rules shall so provide. No committee of the convention, including the executive committee,

25 (B) The staff of the constitutional convention may include but shall not be limited 26 to the following who shall not be delegates to the convention:

1 (3) Personnel provided by the Louisiana State University, Tulane University, Loyola 2 University, and Southern University law schools from the faculty as requested by the 3 committee.

4 (4) Such other staff as the executive committee deems necessary.

5 (C) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if a staff member 6 provided to the Evaluation and Drafting Committee or to the convention is engaged in 7 regular, bona fide employment, the staff member may continue to be paid and receive the 8 usual compensation and benefits from his employer while the staff member is engaged in 9 the work of the committee or the convention.

10 (D) As soon as possible after the members of the executive committee are elected,

14 (E) The executive committee may create and establish such substantive and 15 procedural committees as it deems appropriate. The chairman of the convention shall 30 framing a new constitution. Any such grants, monies, facilities, services, and donations, as

1 well as the names of the donors thereof, shall be recorded in the record of the proceedings
2 of the convention, and such records shall be open to inspection by any person.

3 (H) The final draft of the proposed constitution shall be completed no later than May 4 30, 2019.

5 Section 9. Compensation of delegates. No delegate may accept any compensation
6 from any source for work performed as a delegate to the convention. However, if a delegate 7 is engaged in regular, bona fide employment, should the delegate's employer choose to 8 continue to pay the usual compensation while the delegate is engaged in the work of the 9 convention, such delegate may accept that compensation, notwithstanding any provision of 10 law to the contrary.

11 Section 10. Appropriation; use of funds. (A) Any appropriation for the expenses 12 of the convention shall be used solely to defray the necessary expenses of the constitutional 13 convention for which provision is made in this Act, including the payment for supplies, 14 materials, equipment, printing, and reproduction of materials, and all other necessary 15 expenses incurred in connection with the convention and its work.

16 (B) Any funds appropriated for the convention shall be withdrawn from the state 17 treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the chairman of the convention, and all 18 checks for the disbursement of funds shall be signed by the chairman and the vice chairman 19 of the convention or by the chairman or vice chairman and such other person as shall be 20 designated by the convention.

21 (C) The legislature shall make adequate appropriations to the convention for so long 22 as the convention remains in existence and for so long thereafter as is necessary to assure 23 the payment of all expenses incurred in connection with the work of the convention. The 24 convention shall not be deemed to be a budget unit of the state and therefore shall not be 25 subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.
26 The financial books and records of the convention, however, shall be subject to audit by the 27 legislative auditor.

28 Section 11. Submission of proposed constitution; election. (A) Upon completion 29 of its work, and not later than June 12, 2019, and subject to the limitations provided in 30 Section 6 of this Act, the convention shall submit a proposed draft of a new constitution for

1 the state to the governor. At the discretion of the convention, but subject to the limitations
2 provided in Section 6 of this Act, the convention may also propose and submit at the same 3 time such alternative provisions as it deems appropriate. The constitution as drafted by the 4 convention, together with any alternative provisions proposed for submission, shall be 5 submitted to the people for adoption or rejection. Within fifteen days after submission of 6 the proposed draft to the governor, he shall by proclamation call an election to be held at the 7 same time as the gubernatorial primary election in 2019 for the purpose of submitting the 8 proposed draft and any alternative provisions to the people for adoption or rejection.

9 (B) The election shall be held and the results shall be promulgated in accordance 10 with the Louisiana Election Code. All electors duly qualified to vote in the state at the time 11 of the election shall be entitled to vote without regard to party affiliation in their respective 12 precincts on the proposition for or against adoption of the revision and on the question or 13 questions of adoption of such alternative provisions as may be proposed by the convention.
14 The costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the Louisiana Election Code for 15 elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot.

16 (C) The convention may submit to the electors of the state the proposal of 17 acceptance or rejection of the constitution and any alternative provisions in such form and 18 manner as it may determine and may direct the proper election officials to take the necessary 19 steps to effectuate such determination of the convention in presenting the proposed 20 constitution and any alternative provisions to the electors. Adoption of the constitution and 21 of any such alternative provisions shall require the favorable vote of a majority of the 22 electors voting on the respective proposition.

23 (D) Upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state, if the 24 constitution is ratified and adopted by the people in the election for which provision is made 25 in this Section, the governor shall proclaim the constitution, including such alternative 26 provisions as are adopted by the people at the election, to be the Constitution of Louisiana.
27 The constitution, including such alternative provisions as are so adopted, shall become 28 effective at midnight on December 31, 2019, except as otherwise provided in the constitution 29 adopted or in any such alternative provisions adopted.

1 Section 12. If any provision or application of this Act that authorizes the convention 2 to consider only certain subject matters and certain provisions of the constitution and 3 prohibits the convention from considering other subject matters and provisions is held 4 invalid, including without limitation any provision of Section 6 of this Act, then this entire 5 Act shall be invalid and of no effect. However, if any other provision of this Act or the 6 application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or 7 applications of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

8 Section 13. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 9 signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature 10 by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 11 vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 12 effective on the day following such approval.

HB 456 Reengrossed

2017 Regular Session

Abramson

Abstract: Calls a limited constitutional convention preceded by study by an Evaluation and Drafting Committee to determine if a convention is needed. If the committee determines a convention is needed, provides that its report include a convention plan, including a proposed constitution. Calls convention to convene on Jan. 7, 2019, to be composed of 132 delegates, 105 elected from representative districts and 27 appointed. Requires convention to complete a new constitution by May 30, 2019. Limits convention to changes relative to state and local finance, raising revenue, allocation and expenditure of funds, education funding, higher education, accrual of retirement benefits by members of a state or statewide public retirement system hired after Dec. 31, 2019; the management of investments held by the state retirement systems; and the enactment of retirement benefit provisions.

Proposed law states legislative findings that there is a need to address a number of key policy areas that require constitutional change, that the constitution restricts the legislature in effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and that a serious analysis and revision of the state constitution is needed to conduct an examination of the state's critical needs, to consider reform proposals, and to craft provisions that allow legislative solutions.
