2016 Regular Session

LeBas

Abstract: Requires a health insurer to send a remittance advice on the date of payment.

Present law requires a health insurer to send a remittance advice to a pharmacy within seven business days of payment.

Proposed law requires the health insurer to send the remittance advice on the date of payment.

Present law requires the remittance advice to include certain information, clearly identified and totaled for each claim listed.

Proposed law retains present law and adds the requirement that the remittance advice include the network identifier.

(Amends R.S. 22:1856(C)(intro. para.) and (14); Adds R.S. 22:1856(C)(15))
