Brass

Abstract: Removes termination provision of Dual Enrollment Framework Task Force.

Present law establishes the Dual Enrollment Framework Task Force to make recommendations for a statewide dual enrollment framework to provide universal access to dual enrollment courses. Requires local public school boards to develop agreements with colleges and universities for articulation and transfer of credit. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides for task force termination on June 30, 2021. Proposed law repeals present law. Further provides that the task force is responsible for implementing the dual enrollment framework.
