14 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

15 Section 1. Section 3.(C), (G), and (I) and Section 4.A of Act No. 421 of the 2013

16 Regular Session of the Legislature are hereby amended and reenacted and Section 3.(M) of 17 the 2013 Regular Session of the Legislature is hereby enacted to read as follows:

18 * * *

19 Section 3.

20 * * *

1 (C) Notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any other Act or other 2 provisions of law to the contrary, and except as provided in Subsection (B), the 3 following taxes are eligible for amnesty:

4 (1) ~~Taxes due prior to January 1, 2013, for which the department has issued~~ 5 ~~an individual or a business proposed assessment, notice of assessment, bill, notice,~~ 6 ~~or demand for payment not later than May 31, 2013; or~~ For the 2013 amnesty 7 program: taxes due prior to January 1, 2013, for which the department has issued an 8 individual or a business proposed assessment, notice of assessment, bill, notice, or 9 demand for payment not later than May 31, 2013;

10 (2) Taxes for taxable periods that began before January 1, ~~2013~~ 2014; or 11 (3) Taxes for which the taxpayer and the department have entered into an 12 agreement to interrupt the running of prescription pursuant to R.S. 47:1580 and said 13 agreement suspends the running of prescription until December 31, ~~2013~~ 2014.

14 (4) For the 2014 amnesty program: taxes due prior to January 1, 2014, for 15 which the department has issued an individual or a business proposed assessment, 16 notice of assessment, bill, notice, or demand for payment not later than May 31, 17 2014;

18 (5) For the 2015 amnesty program: taxes due prior to January 1, 2015, for 19 which the department has issued an individual or a business proposed assessment, 20 notice of assessment, bill, notice, or demand for payment not later than May 31, 21 2015.

23 (G)(1) Amnesty will be granted only for eligible taxes to eligible taxpayers 24 who apply for amnesty during an amnesty period on forms prescribed by the 25 secretary and who pay all of the tax, all fees and costs, if applicable, and any interest 26 due upon filing the amnesty application. Pursuant to the provisions of Subsection 27 (M) of this Section, taxpayers who apply for amnesty by opting to pay the tax and 28 any applicable fees, costs, and interest in installments shall only remain eligible to 29 participate in the amnesty program by making complete and timely payment of the 1 entire amount due under the taxpayer's installment agreement. Taxpayers involved 2 in field audits or litigation shall not be eligible for installment agreements under the 3 amnesty program. The amnesty application for taxpayers involved in field audits or 4 litigation shall include all issues and all eligible periods involved in the audit or 5 litigation. The secretary shall reserve the right to require taxpayers to file tax returns 6 with the amnesty application. Notwithstanding the terms or provisions of any other 7 Act or other provisions of law to the contrary, if the amnesty application is approved 8 during the 2013 amnesty period the secretary shall waive one-half of the interest and 9 all of the penalties associated with the tax periods for which amnesty is applied. If 10 the amnesty application is approved during the 2014 amnesty period, the secretary 11 shall waive ~~fifteen~~ sixty-seven percent of all of the penalties associated with the tax 12 periods for which amnesty is applied, ~~but no~~ and thirty-three percent of the interest 13 shall be waived. If the amnesty application is approved during the 2015 amnesty 14 period, the secretary shall waive ~~ten~~ thirty-three percent of all of the penalties 15 associated with the tax periods for which amnesty is applied, ~~but no~~ and seventeen 16 percent of the interest shall be waived. However, any taxpayer for which a final 17 judgment in accordance with R.S. 47:1565 or 1568 has been rendered against him 18 by a court or who has exhausted all rights to protest taxes owed to the state, who also 19 fails to submit an amnesty application during either the 2014 or 2015 amnesty 20 period, whichever occurs first after the final judgment has been rendered against him 21 or in which his rights to protest taxes have been exhausted, shall be subject to double 22 penalties. An amnesty payment or application submitted in a properly addressed 23 envelope with sufficient postage delivered by the United States Postal Service is 24 deemed paid or received on the date it is postmarked. An amnesty payment or 25 application delivered by courier or taxpayer is deemed paid or received on the date 26 it is delivered to the department's headquarters or a regional office. ~~No installment~~ 27 ~~agreements will be entered into for tax periods that are approved for amnesty.~~ The 28 department shall not accept tax credits as payment of any tax, interest, penalty, or fee 29 paid as a result of participation in the amnesty program.

1 (2) A taxpayer who disputes a portion of the amount of a delinquent tax 2 assessed by the department may be eligible to apply for amnesty if the taxpayer 3 remits the complete one-time payment of that portion of the tax that is not in dispute, 4 plus applicable interest and penalties, hereinafter referred to as the "compromise 5 amount", to the department prior to the end of the amnesty period for which the 6 taxpayer applies. The secretary shall have thirty days beginning on the first business 7 day after the last day of the amnesty period to determine if the taxpayer shall be 8 granted amnesty based on the compromise amount paid. If the secretary approves 9 the compromise amount paid by the taxpayer, the taxpayer shall be granted amnesty.
10 If the secretary rejects the compromise amount paid by the taxpayer, amnesty shall 11 not be granted and the taxpayer shall be responsible for the full amount of the 12 delinquent tax, penalties, interest, and fees prior to his application for amnesty. Any 13 monies paid to the department as compromised amounts during the amnesty period 14 shall be allocated toward payment of the taxpayer's delinquent tax debt in accordance 15 with rules and regulations which govern such payments in the absence of an amnesty 16 program.

* * *

18 (I) Amnesty applications shall include a written waiver of all rights, 19 restrictions, and delays for assessing, collecting, or protesting taxes and interest due 20 as set forth in R.S. 47:1562 through 1565 and 1576. The filing of such applications 21 shall make the tax, interest, and penalty immediately due and payable; except when 22 the taxpayer has been authorized by the secretary of the department, after making 23 application on the supplemental form provided by the secretary, to make installment 24 payments of such tax, interest, penalty, and fees. Pursuant to the provisions of 25 Subsection (M) of this Section, a taxpayer's supplemental application seeking 26 authority to make installment payments of a delinquent tax, interest, penalties, and 27 fees shall, upon approval of the secretary, be deemed to enter the taxpayer into an 28 installment agreement with the department. Payments of tax, interest, penalties, and 29 fees shall be subject to the distraint procedure provided for in Title 47 of the 1 Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950; ineligible for refund, credit, or claim against the 2 state; and ineligible for redetermination under the provisions of R.S. 47:1565(C); 3 however, a taxpayer shall be eligible for a refund or credit if the overpayment arises 4 after the amnesty application is submitted and is attributable to a properly claimed 5 Louisiana net operating loss or attributable to an adjustment made by the Internal 6 Revenue Service to the taxpayer's federal income tax, and the taxpayer provides 7 notice of the adjustment to the secretary within sixty days of receipt of the 8 adjustment from the Internal Revenue Service. A taxpayer who files an application 9 for amnesty retains all administrative and judicial rights of appeal with respect to any 10 additional tax assessed by the department.

11 * * *

12 (M)(1) Installment agreements. A taxpayer's application to make installment 13 payments of a delinquent tax and its interest, penalties, and fees shall, upon approval 14 by the secretary, enter the taxpayer into an installment agreement with the secretary 15 of the department, whereby continuation in the amnesty program is dependent upon 16 complete and timely payments of all installment payments. All installment 17 agreements approved by the secretary shall require the taxpayer to provide a down 18 payment of no less than twenty percent of the total amount of delinquent tax, penalty, 19 interest, and fees owed to the department at the time the installment agreement is 20 approved by the secretary. Additionally, every installment agreement shall include 21 fixed, equal, monthly payments that shall not extend for more than six months.

22 (a) For the 2014 amnesty program, "timely payment" shall mean all 23 installment payments shall be received no later than May 1, 2015.

24 (b) For the 2015 amnesty program, "timely payment" shall mean all 25 installment payments shall be received no later than May 1, 2016.

26 (2) Automated electronic drafts. Applicants seeking to enter into an 27 installment agreement with the department shall provide necessary information for 28 installment payments to be drafted from an account from which the taxpayer is 29 authorized to remit payment. All payments shall be drafted through electronic 1 automated transactions initiated by the department. Taxpayers who cannot enter into 2 an agreement to make payment by way of automated electronic transactions shall not 3 be eligible for an installment agreement with the department.

4 (3)(a) Forfeiture. If for any reason a taxpayer subject to an installment 5 agreement fails to fulfill his obligation under the agreement by remitting the last 6 installment by the first day of May of the amnesty program year to which the 7 agreement applies, no amnesty shall be granted and the installation agreement shall 8 be null and void. All payments remitted to the department during the duration of 9 such void installment agreement shall be allocated in accordance with department 10 rules and regulations as applied in the absence of an amnesty program. The taxpayer 11 shall be obligated to pay the entirety of the delinquent tax, along with all applicable 12 interest, penalties, and fees.

13 (b) A taxpayer who is approved to participate in the amnesty program who 14 is also a party to an existing installment agreement with the department may be 15 eligible to participate in an installment agreement under the amnesty program. Upon 16 approval by the secretary of an installment agreement under the amnesty program, 17 the original installment agreement with the department shall be cancelled in favor 18 of the installment agreement under amnesty which shall be subject to the provisions 19 of this Subsection.

20 (4) Collection of installment agreements. The secretary may procure 21 amnesty program collection services for the administration and collection of 22 installment agreements. The fee for such services shall be in accordance with the 23 fees authorized in R.S. 47:1516.1.

24 (5) Emergency rules. The secretary of the department may promulgate rules 25 and regulations in accordance with the emergency rulemaking authority of the 26 Administrative Procedure Act as provided for in R.S. 49:953(B) as are necessary to 27 implement the provisions of this Act relative to installment agreements. For 28 purposes of qualifying as an emergency under the provisions of the Administrative 29 Procedure Act, necessity of promulgating these rules by emergency rulemaking shall

Proposed law provides that the amnesty program shall apply to taxes for all of the following:

- (1) Taxes for taxable periods that began before Jan. 1, 2014.
- (2) Taxes for which the department and the taxpayer have entered into an agreement to suspend the running of prescription until Dec. 31, 2014.
- (3) For the 2014 amnesty program: taxes due prior to Jan. 1, 2014, for which the department has issued an individual or a business proposed assessment, notice of assessment, bill, notice, or demand for payment not later than May 31, 2014.
- (4) For the 2015 amnesty program: taxes due prior to Jan. 1, 2015 for which the department has issued an individual or a business proposed assessment, notice of assessment, bill, notice, or demand for payment not later than May 31, 2015.

Present law authorizes the secretary to waive 15% of penalties owed if the amnesty application is approved during the 2014 amnesty period and 10% of penalties owed if the amnesty application is approved during the 2015 amnesty period. No interest is waived during these periods.

Proposed law changes the waiver of the penalties and interest for the 2014 and 2015 amnesty programs to the following:

- (1) Waiver of 67% of penalties and 33% of the interest owed if amnesty is approved during the 2014 amnesty period.
- (2) Waiver of 33% of penalties and 17% of interest owed if amnesty is approved during the 2015 amnesty period.

Proposed law requires the doubling of penalties for any taxpayer for which a final judgment has been rendered against him or who has exhausted all rights to protest taxes owed to the state, who also fails to submit an amnesty application during either the 2014 or 2015 amnesty period, whichever occurs first after the final judgment has been rendered against him or in which his rights to protest taxes have been exhausted.

Proposed law prohibits the department from accepting tax credits as payment of any tax, interest, penalty, or fee as a result of participation in the amnesty program.

Proposed law authorizes taxpayers who dispute a portion of the amount of a delinquent tax assessed by the department to participate in amnesty if the taxpayer remits the payment of that portion of the tax that is not in dispute, plus applicable interest and penalties, and otherwise complies with the requirements of proposed law. Further provides for the requirements of the department with respect to these taxpayers.

Present law prohibits the secretary from allowing taxpayers to enter into installment agreements for amnesty periods.

Proposed law changes present law to authorize installment agreements for the payment of delinquent taxes, interest, penalties, and fees. Further requires the taxpayer to submit an application to make installment payments and once approved by the secretary, requires the taxpayer to provide a down payment of no less than 20% of the total amount of delinquent tax, penalty, interest, and fees owed by the taxpayer at the time that the installment agreement is approved.

Proposed law requires all installment payments to be made through automated electronic transactions and for all payments to be received by the department no later than May 1st of the program year for which the taxpayer applies for amnesty.

Proposed law provides requirements relative to the forfeiture of monies paid if the taxpayer who is a party to an installment agreement fails to fulfill his obligation under the agreement.

Proposed law authorizes the secretary of DOR to procure amnesty program collection services for the administration and collection of installment agreements. The fee for such services shall be in accordance with the fees provided for in present law.

Proposed law authorizes the department to promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with the emergency rulemaking authority of the Administrative Procedure Act as are necessary to implement the provisions of proposed law relative to installment agreements.

Present law requires the secretary to retain from monies collected pursuant to the amnesty program, an amount equal to the costs for contractual information technology and amnesty program administration services. Further authorizes the secretary to use the emergency procurement process to acquire amnesty program administration services and information technology services.

Proposed law retains present law but includes, without limitation, marketing, advertising, and public information services within the amnesty program administration service costs for which the secretary shall retain from monies collected from the amnesty program and for which the department may acquire using the emergency procurement process.

(Amends §§3.(C), (G), and (I) and 4.(A) of Act No. 421 of the 2013 R.S.; Adds §3.(M) to Act No. 421 of the 2013 R.S.)

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Ways and Means to the original bill.

1. Adds a provision requiring the payment of double penalties for taxpayers who have a final judgement rendered in accordance with present law or who have exhausted all rights to protest taxes who fail to apply for amnesty under proposed law.
2. Adds the costs for marketing, advertising, and public information services within the amnesty program administration service costs for which the secretary of DOR shall retain from monies collected from the amnesty program and for which the department may acquire using the emergency procurement process.
