CONSTITUTION/CONVENTION: Provides for calling a limited constitutional convention

1 AN ACT

2 To provide for the calling of a limited constitutional convention for the purpose of framing 3 a new constitution; to provide for legislative findings; to fix the time and place for 4 the convention; to provide for the delegates of the convention; to provide for the 5 organization and staff of the convention; to require that the constitution as adopted 6 by the convention be submitted to the qualified electors for adoption and to provide 7 relative to such submission; to provide for the application of specified laws, 8 including provisions of law containing criminal penalties, to delegates and staff of 9 the convention; to provide for the disbursement of funds for the convention and 10 otherwise provide with respect to funds for the convention; to place limitations on 11 the convention to propose changes; to fix the effective date of the new constitution 12 if approved by the electorate; to provide for an effective date; and to provide for 13 related matters.

14 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

15 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that:

16 (A) It has been almost fifty years since the Constitution of Louisiana became 17 effective at midnight on December 31, 1974, and during these years the document which 1 constitutes the state's basic law has been amended two hundred sixteen times. At more than 2 seventy-five thousand words, the Constitution of Louisiana ranks among the largest 3 constitutions in the nation.

4 (B) The constitution today contains many provisions that restrict the legislature from 5 effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and the document also includes extensive 6 provisions that are so detailed as to be statutory rather than constitutional in nature and, as 7 a result, require continual constitutional amendment when change is needed.

8 (C) The state constitution needs to be streamlined to the fundamental and 9 foundational law of the state, including the basic principles of the state, the structure of 10 government, and the fundamental rights of citizens. Other extremely detailed provisions in 11 the constitution should be transitioned out of the constitution and made statutory to allow 12 for flexibility and innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present and the 13 future.

14 Section 2. Call for convention; delegates. (A) A constitutional convention is hereby 15 called, to convene no earlier than May 30, 2024, and at least three calendar days after the 16 issuance of a proclamation setting the date and time of convening by the speaker of the 17 House of Representatives, which shall be held for the purpose of framing a new constitution 18 for the state of Louisiana subject to the limitations provided in Section 4 of this Act.

19 (B)(1) There shall be one hundred seventy-one delegates to the convention who shall 20 be selected as follows:

21 (a) One hundred five delegates shall be the members of the House of Representatives 22 of the Legislature of Louisiana.

23 (b) Thirty-nine delegates shall be the members of the Senate of the Legislature of 24 Louisiana.

25 (c) Twenty-seven delegates shall be appointed by the governor.

26 (2) The secretary of state shall issue a commission to each delegate.

27 (3) The service of a legislator or other public official or public employee as a 28 delegate to the convention and the employment or appointment of any public official or 29 public employee to the staff of the convention and his service on such staff, as authorized 30 and provided in this Act, shall not be construed to constitute dual officeholding or dual 31 employment within the prohibitions of Part III of Chapter 2 of Title 42 of the Louisiana

1 Revised Statutes of 1950. The service of a judge as a delegate to the convention shall not 2 be construed as grounds for recusal. Each delegate shall be considered to be an elected 3 official within the scope of and subject to the provisions of the Code of Governmental 4 Ethics, Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. Each staff member 5 of the convention shall be considered to be a public employee within the scope of and 6 subject to the provisions of the Code of Governmental Ethics, Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the 7 Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950. For purposes of Chapter 15 of Title 42 of the Louisiana 8 Revised Statutes of 1950, the agency and the governmental entity of delegates and staff 9 members of the convention shall be the convention. For purposes of any other office or 10 employment of any such delegate or staff member, the provisions of Chapter 15 of Title 42 11 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 shall remain applicable. Each delegate to the 12 convention and each staff member of the convention shall be considered to be a public 13 officer, public official, public employee, or person in a position of public authority for 14 purposes of the application of the provisions of the Louisiana Criminal Code. No delegate 15 shall accept or deposit a campaign contribution as defined in R.S. 18:1483 and no campaign 16 fundraising function shall be held for or by a delegate during the time period established in 17 this Act for the conduct of the convention. The provisions of the Public Records Law shall 18 apply to the convention, its committees, and delegates to the same extent and with the same 19 limitations as applicable to records of the legislature and members of the legislature. The 20 provisions of the Open Meetings Law shall apply to the convention and its committees in 21 the same manner as applicable to the legislature and either house or committees thereof.

22 (4) Any attorney at law serving as a delegate to the convention or as a member of 23 the staff of the convention shall be entitled to the absolute right of the continuance of any 24 case in which he is bona fide counsel of record in any court of the state during his attendance 25 upon the sessions and work of the convention.

26 Section 3. Vacancies. (A) In the event of the death or the inability due to a 27 documented illness of a legislative delegate to serve, whether before or during the 28 convention, the presiding officer of the house of the legislature in which the delegate serves 29 as a legislator may fill such vacancy by appointment of a person from the same legislative 30 district who possesses the same age, residence, and domicile requirements contained in 31 Article III, Section 4 of the Constitution of Louisiana for membership in the legislature.

1 (B) In the event of the death or the inability due to a documented illness of a 2 gubernatorially appointed delegate to serve, whether before or during the convention, the 3 governor may appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

4 Section 4.(A) Subject to the limitations contained in Subsection B of this Section, 5 the convention shall have authority to frame a new constitution for the state which shall be 6 submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection.

7 (B) The convention shall be limited in its authority with respect to all matters 8 contained in the Constitution of Louisiana of 1974, as amended, to the following:

9 (1)(a) Determining the provisions of the constitution that constitute the fundamental 10 and foundational law of the state that should remain in the constitution, including the basic 11 principles of the state, the structure of government, and the fundamental rights of citizens.

12 (b) Retaining without affecting the effect of the following fundamental provisions 13 of the Constitution of Louisiana:

14 (i) Article I.

15 (ii) Article II.

16 (iii) Article III.

17 (iv) Article IV.

18 (v) Article V, Section 23.

19 (vi) Article V, Sections 26 and 27.

20 (vii) Article VII, Sections 3(B) and 10(D)(3).

21 (viii) Article VII, Section 9.

22 (ix) Article VII, Section 20.

24 University and Agricultural and Mechanical College.

25 (xi) Article VIII, Section 13.

26 (xii) Article X, Section 10(A)(1)(b).

27 (xiii) Article X, Section 29.

28 (2) Determining the provisions of the constitution that do not constitute the 29 fundamental or foundational law of the state that should be transitioned out of the 30 constitution and made statutory.

1 (3) Determining the language in the constitution that is duplicative, redundant, 2 outdated, or transitional in nature which can be removed or updated without affecting the 3 effect of the constitutional provisions.

4 (4) Determining whether additional requirements on the proposal and adoption of 5 future constitutional amendments is necessary or desirable.

6 (5) Proposing a new constitution based upon the determinations made in accordance 7 with this Subsection.

8 (C) In addition to the authority to propose changes as provided in Subsection (B) of 9 this Section, but solely for the purposes of orderly arrangement, style and conformity, the 10 convention may incorporate in its proposed revision nonsubstantive changes to the 11 provisions of the constitution but only to the extent that they are essential in order to 12 conform to the changes being proposed. For the same purposes, the convention may: 13 (1) renumber or rearrange provisions, (2) transfer or divide provisions, (3) change reference 14 designations to conform to redesignated provisions, and (4) make any other purely formal 15 or clerical changes in keeping with the purpose of the revision.

16 (D) Any action by the convention in contravention of the provisions of this Section 17 shall be null and void and of no effect.

18 (E) Any action to determine a question of the construction or validity of this Act, to 19 determine the scope of authority of the convention, or to determine the conformity of any 20 action of the convention with the provisions of this Act shall be brought in the Nineteenth 21 Judicial District Court. The matter shall be tried by preference over other matters, and the 22 court shall render a decision as soon as practicable. In the event of an appeal, the appellate 23 court shall place the matter on its preferential docket, shall hear it without delay, and shall 24 render a decision as soon as practicable.

25 Section 5.(A) The provisions of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be 26 severable. If any provision of the proposed revision of the constitution is deemed null and 27 void and of no effect by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction after adoption 28 by the convention but prior to its submission to the electors, then the provision deemed null 29 and void shall be removed from the proposed revision of the constitution by the secretary 30 of state and the remainder of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be submitted to 31 the electors in accordance with this Act.

1 (B) If any provision of the revision of the constitution, or the application thereof, is 2 deemed invalid after ratification by the electors, such invalidity shall not affect other 3 provisions, items, or applications of the revision which can be given effect without the 4 invalid provision, item, or application.

5 Section 6. Convention organization. (A)(1) The delegates to the convention chosen 6 as provided in this Act shall convene in the House Chamber in the state capitol, or at such 7 other suitable location in the capital city as shall be determined jointly by the presiding 8 officers of the legislature, on the date and at the time of convening established as provided 9 in Section 2 of this Act. The speaker of the House of Representatives shall preside until the 10 chairman has been elected. The secretary of state, or her designee, shall attend the opening 11 of the convention and call the roll of the delegates and shall administer the following oath 12 to the delegates:

13 "I, . . . , do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution and laws of 14 the United States and the constitution and laws of this state and that I will faithfully and 15 impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as a delegate to the 16 convention, according to the best of my ability and understanding, and that I will observe 17 and obey the limitation of authority contained in the Act under which this convention has 18 assembled. So help me God."

19 (2) No delegate shall be qualified to serve as such unless and until he has taken and 20 subscribed to the oath in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.

21 (B) After the oath has been administered, the delegates shall proceed to effect the 22 permanent organization of the convention and shall:

23 (1) Adopt rules of procedure for the convention, which rules shall not be inconsistent 24 with the provisions of this Act.

25 (2) Elect from among their number a chairman, a vice chairman, and such other 26 officers as they deem necessary.

27 (3) Either elect from among their number an executive committee, the membership 28 of which shall be determined by the delegates but which shall include among its members 29 all of the elected officers of the convention, or elect to have the legislators who serve on the 30 Legislative Budgetary Control Council serve as the executive committee of the convention.

1 (4) Select a chief clerical officer of the convention from among the chief clerical 2 officers of the House of Representatives and the Senate and their assistants, who shall not 3 be a delegate and whose duties shall be provided by the rules of procedure for the 4 convention.

5 (5) Take such other actions as they deem necessary to effect a permanent 6 organization of the convention.

7 (C) Prior to the convening of the convention, members of the House of 8 Representatives and Senate staffs as designated by the presiding officers of the legislature 9 shall prepare a draft of rules of procedure for consideration, amendment, and adoption by 10 the convention when it convenes. Such proposed rules shall be based upon the rules of the 11 constitutional convention convened in 1973, except as inconsistent with the provisions of 12 this Act. The rules of procedure adopted by the convention shall be subject to later change 13 as the delegates shall provide therein. No action shall be taken by the convention without 14 the favorable vote of at least a majority of the legislative delegates from the House of 15 Representatives present and voting, a majority of the legislative delegates from the Senate 16 present and voting, and a majority of the delegates appointed by the governor present and 17 voting, each group of delegates voting separately, a quorum of the convention being present.
18 No delegate shall be allowed to vote by proxy and the rules shall so provide. No committee 19 of the convention, including the executive committee, shall exceed seventeen members and 20 the rules shall so provide.

21 (D) After completing organizational activities, the convention may meet either as 22 a full body or in committees until it completes its duties as provided in this Act. Any 23 committee of the convention may begin meeting after completion of the convention's 24 organizational activities. Each committee that meets shall provide a report of its activities 25 to the full convention no later than August, 1, 2024.

26 Section 7. Legal Advisor; staff; budget; committees.

27 (A)(1) The attorney general or her designee shall be the legal advisor to the 28 convention.

29 (2) Staff support for the convention shall be provided by the staffs of the House of 30 Representatives, the Senate, the legislative fiscal office, the legislative auditor's office, and 31 other legislative agencies. In addition, as soon as possible after the members of the 1 executive committee are selected, the executive committee shall request the provision of 2 professional, research, technical, and clerical employees from any public or private sources 3 the committee deems necessary to accomplish the work of the convention.

4 (B) The staff of the constitutional convention may include but shall not be limited 5 to the following who shall not be delegates to the convention:

6 (1) A director of research who shall possess such qualifications as determined by the 7 committee.

8 (2) Research assistants in such number and possessing such qualifications as 9 determined by the committee.

10 (3) Personnel from the faculty of in-state law schools as requested by the committee.

11 (4) Such other staff as the executive committee deems necessary.

12 (C) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if a staff member provided 13 to the convention is engaged in regular, bona fide employment, the staff member may 14 continue to be paid and receive the usual compensation and benefits from his employer while 15 the staff member is engaged in the work of the committee or the convention.

16 (D) As soon as possible after the members of the executive committee are elected, 17 the executive committee shall prepare a budget of anticipated expenses of the convention 18 based on the amount of the appropriation for the convention and any other funds available 19 for expenditure.

20 (E) The executive committee may create and establish such substantive and 21 procedural committees as it deems appropriate. The chairman of the convention shall 22 appoint the chairman, vice chairman, and the membership of each such committee.

23 (F) Unless the legislature is in session, the House chamber, the Senate chamber, and 24 the legislative committee rooms in the state capitol shall be available for use by the 25 convention and its committees. If the facilities at the state capitol are not available or are 26 not sufficient for use by the convention or its committees, the convention or its committees 27 shall meet at a suitable location in the capital city, which location shall be determined by the 28 chairman of the convention, and public notice of the location shall be given and posted at 29 suitable locations in the state capitol. The convention shall have full authority to use the 30 facilities and services of any board, commission, department, or agency of the state or of any 31 political subdivision of the state, and all such entities shall cooperate with the convention to

1 the fullest extent in furnishing services, facilities, and employees upon request. In addition, 2 the convention may use the facilities and services of other persons and organizations.

3 Section 8. Compensation of delegates. The delegates to the convention shall receive 4 the same per diem and travel allowances provided for members of the legislature pursuant 5 to R.S. 24:31 and 31.1 for their attendance at the convention or any committee thereof. No 6 delegate shall receive a per diem or travel allowance for any day for which the delegate also 7 received a per diem or travel allowance for his duties as a legislator or for other public 8 service. No delegate may accept any compensation from any other source for work 9 performed as a delegate to the convention. However, if a delegate is engaged in regular, 10 bona fide employment, should the delegate's employer choose to continue to pay the usual 11 compensation while the delegate is engaged in the work of the convention, such delegate 12 may accept that compensation, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary.

13 Section 9. Appropriation; use of funds. (A) Any appropriation for the expenses of 14 the convention shall be used solely to defray the necessary expenses of the constitutional 15 convention for which provision is made in this Act, including the payment for supplies, 16 materials, equipment, printing, and reproduction of materials, and all other necessary 17 expenses incurred in connection with the convention and its work.

18 (B) Any funds appropriated for the convention shall be withdrawn from the state 19 treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the chairman of the convention, and all 20 checks for the disbursement of funds shall be signed by the chairman and the vice chairman 21 of the convention or by the chairman or vice chairman and such other person as shall be 22 designated by the convention.

23 (C) The convention shall not be deemed to be a budget unit of the state and therefore 24 shall not be subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised 25 Statutes of 1950. The financial books and records of the convention, however, shall be 26 subject to audit by the legislative auditor.

27 (D) The presiding officers of the legislature may authorize the use of funds 28 appropriated to the legislature for Fiscal Year 2023-2024 to defray expenses of the 29 constitutional convention.

30 Section 10. Submission of proposed constitution; election. (A) Upon completion 31 of its work, and not later than August 15, 2024, and subject to the limitations provided in

1 Section 4 of this Act, the convention shall submit a proposed draft of a new constitution for 2 the state to the governor. The constitution as drafted by the convention shall be submitted 3 to the people for adoption or rejection. Within ten days after submission of the proposed 4 draft to the governor, he shall by proclamation call an election to be held at the same time 5 as the congressional primary election in 2024 for the purpose of submitting the proposed 6 draft to the people for adoption or rejection.

7 (B) The election shall be held and the results shall be promulgated in accordance 8 with the Louisiana Election Code. All electors duly qualified to vote in the state at the time 9 of the election shall be entitled to vote without regard to party affiliation on the proposition 10 for or against adoption of the revision of the constitution proposed by the convention. The 11 costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the Louisiana Election Code for elections 12 in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot.

13 (C) The convention may submit to the electors of the state the proposal of 14 acceptance or rejection of the constitution and may direct the proper election officials to take 15 the necessary steps to effectuate such determination of the convention in presenting the 16 proposed constitution to the electors. Adoption of the constitution shall require the favorable 17 vote of a majority of the electors voting on the proposition.

18 (D) Upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state, if the 19 constitution is ratified and adopted by the people in the election for which provision is made 20 in this Section, the governor shall proclaim the constitution to be the Constitution of 21 Louisiana. The constitution shall become effective at midnight on December 31, 2024, 22 except as otherwise provided in the constitution adopted.

23 Section 11. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 24 signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature 25 by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 26 vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 27 effective on the day following such approval.

- (2) Provides for House and Senate staff designated by the presiding officers of the legislature, prior to the convention, to prepare rules of procedure for adoption by the convention, based on the 1973 convention rules, such rules to be subject to change and adoption by the convention. Provides that action by the convention requires a favorable vote of House delegates, Senate delegates, and gubernatorially appointed delegates, each group of delegates voting separately, a quorum of the convention being present. Prohibits proxy voting. Limits committee membership to 17 members.

Proposed law provides for the initial meeting of the convention no earlier than May 30, 2024, and at least three days after the speaker of house issues a proclamation setting time and date of convening. Provides that after organizational activities are completed, the convention may meet either as a full body or in committees until it completes its duties. Allows the staff of the convention to continue to receive compensation from the staff person's regular bona fide employment.
- (3) Requires the executive committee to prepare a budget of anticipated expenses of the convention, based on the amount of the appropriation for the convention and any other funds available for expenditure.
- (4) Authorizes the executive committee to establish any substantive or procedural committees it deems necessary. Provides that the chairman of the convention appoint the chairman, vice chairman, and membership of each such committee.
- (5) Requires that the House Chamber and the legislative committee rooms in the state capitol be available for convention use, unless the legislature is in session. Authorizes the convention to meet elsewhere in Baton Rouge as determined by the chairman when state capitol facilities are not available or are insufficient.

- (1) Prohibits a delegate from accepting any compensation from any other source for work performed as a delegate to the convention, but allows a delegate to continue to receive compensation for the delegate's regular bona fide employment while a delegate.
- (2) Requires that the legislature make adequate appropriations to the convention for the payment of the necessary expenses of the convention such as supplies, materials, equipment, and printing for so long as the convention remains in existence and for so long thereafter as is necessary to pay the expenses of the convention. Provides that the convention is not a state budget unit. Specifies that the convention is subject to audit by the legislative auditor. Authorizes the presiding officers to utilize funds appropriated to the legislature to defray expenses of the convention.

- (3) Requires that funds appropriated be withdrawn from the state treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the convention chairman and that checks be signed by the chairman and vice chairman, or the chairman or vice chairman and such other person as designated by the convention.

Submission to Voters/Effectiveness

Proposed law requires the convention, upon completion of its work and subject to the subject matter limitations on the convention, to submit to the governor the proposed constitution by Aug. 15, 2024. Provides that the constitution proposed for submission shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at a special election. Requires the governor to call the election within 10 days after the draft is submitted, to be held at the same time as the congressional primary in 2024 (Nov. 5, 2024). Provides for the election to be held and the results thereof promulgated in accordance with the La. Election Code and for costs to be paid as provided in the election code for elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot. Voters are allowed to vote without regard to party affiliation. Requires a majority vote to approve the constitution.

Proposed law provides that the provisions of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be severable and provides that if any provision is deemed null and void and of no effect by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction after adoption by the convention but prior to its submission to the electors, then the provision deemed null and void shall be removed from the proposed revision of the constitution by the secretary of state and the remainder of the proposed revision of the constitution shall be submitted to the electors in accordance proposed law. Proposed law requires, upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state if the constitution is ratified and adopted by the people, that the governor proclaim the constitution as adopted, to be the Constitution of La.
