Proposed law provides that the willful failure to comply with proposed law relating to security deposits shall give the tenant or lessee the right to recover damages in an amount equal to twice the amount of the wrongfully withheld security deposit from the landlord or lessor, or from the lessor's successor in interest.

Proposed law provides that no advance written notice to lessor of termination shall be required for a lease terminating pursuant to proposed law, nor shall such termination constitute grounds for a complaint or action by the lessor or any credit bureau or collection agency for any amounts or penalties or damages claimed due to such termination.

Proposed law further provides that a tenant fulfilling the requirements of proposed law is entitled to the full return of any security deposit, if the tenant has otherwise complied with the requirements of the lease.
