DIGEST

Johns (SB 333)

Present law defines and provides penalties relative to the crimes of incest, aggravated incest, crime against nature, and aggravated crime against nature.

Proposed law repeals the named present law crimes of "incest" and "aggravated incest" and places those crimes' elements and penalties under "crime against nature" and "aggravated crime against nature", respectively.

Proposed law otherwise retains all present law relative to the crimes of incest and aggravated incest.

Present law references the present law crimes of incest and aggravated incest in various provisions relative to the time limitation for prosecuting certain sex offenses, sentencing and registration of sex offenders, criminal procedure, determination of mental capacity or incapacity, diminution of sentence, grounds for termination of parental rights, a coroner's duties relative to certain crimes and crime victims, and the use of public funds for certain purposes.

Proposed law changes these references in present law from "incest" and "aggravated incest" to "crime against nature" or "aggravated crime against nature" or deletes present law in its entirety as appropriate in the context of present law.

Proposed law otherwise retains present law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
