AN ACT

To enact R.S. 33:130.302(K), relative to the St. Landry Parish Economic and Industrial Development District; to prohibit elected officials from serving on the district's board of commissioners; and to provide for related matters.

Notice of intention to introduce this Act has been published.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 33:130.302(K) is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§130.302. Board of commissioners; members; officers; employees

K. Elected officials are prohibited from serving on the board of commissioners.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Ann S. Brown.

DIGEST

Present law [R.S. 33:130.301] creates the St. Landry Parish Economic and Industrial Development District for the primary purpose of stimulating industrial and commercial development in St. Landry Parish.

Present law [R.S. 33:130.302] creates a 17 member board of commissioners to provide for the district's development and effectuation of services. Board members are appointed by the St. Landry Parish Council and the St. Landry Parish Municipal Association.

Present law provides that all commissioners be qualified voters and taxpayers within the limits of the district during their term of office and reside in St. Landry Parish or within an adjoining parish.

Present law provides that current members of the St. Landry Parish Municipal Association and of the St. Landry Parish Council may not serve as commissioners.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law prohibits elected officials from serving as commissioners.

Effective August 15, 2010.
