DIGEST

Claitor (SB 652)

Present law provides for the powers and obligations of the La. Lottery Corporation president. Provides that not later than thirty days before the beginning of each regular session of the legislature, the president shall submit the proposed annual budget and projected net proceeds to the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget for review and approval.

Proposed law retains present law and also requires inclusion of a personnel table for full and part-time permanent positions that details the number of positions and salaries for the current fiscal year and requested for the next fiscal year.

Effective July 1, 2012.
