A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To express the sincere condolences of the Legislature of Louisiana upon the death of Malcolm John Rebennack Jr., "Dr. John, the Night Tripper".

WHEREAS, it is with deep regret and profound sorrow that the Legislature of Louisiana learned of the passing of Malcolm John Rebennack Jr. on June 6, 2019, at the age of seventy-six; and

WHEREAS, he was born in New Orleans on November 20, 1941, the son of Dorothy (Cronin) and Malcolm John Rebennack, and had German, Irish, Spanish, English, and French heritage; and

WHEREAS, Malcolm John Rebennack Jr; better known by his stage name, Dr. John, was a New Orleans singer and songwriter whose music combined blues, pop, jazz, boogie-woogie, and rock and roll; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John, as a seasoned musician from the late 1950s until his death, gained a following in the late 1960s after the release of his album "Gris-Gris"; and

WHEREAS, he grew up in the 3rd Ward of New Orleans, and found early musical inspiration in the minstrel tunes sung by his grandfather and a number of aunts, uncles, a sister, and cousins who played piano; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John did not take music lessons before his teens and endured only

1 a short stint in choir before getting kicked out; and

2 WHEREAS, his father exposed him as a young boy to jazz musicians King Oliver 3 and Louis Armstrong, who later inspired his 2014 release, "Ske-Dat-De-Dat: The Spirit of 4 Satch"; and

5 WHEREAS, at thirteen years old, Dr. John met Professor Longhair; impressed by 6 "The Fess's" flamboyant attire and striking musical style, Dr. John soon began performing 7 with him, and began his life as a professional musician; and

8 WHEREAS, later he began to perform in New Orleans clubs, mainly on guitar, and 9 played on stage with various local artists; and 10 WHEREAS, Dr. John later recalled that his debut in the studio, in about 1955 or 11 1956, came when he was signed as a songwriter and artist by Eddie Mesner at Aladdin 12 Records; and

13 WHEREAS, he joined the musicians' union at the end of 1957, with the help of 14 Danny Kessler, and then considered himself to be a professional musician; and

15 WHEREAS, beginning in the late 1960s, he gained fame as a solo artist after 16 adopting the persona of "Dr. John, The Night Tripper",; and

17 WHEREAS, "Gris-Gris", his 1968 debut album combining voodoo rhythms and 18 chants with the New Orleans music tradition, was ranked in "The 500 Greatest Albums of 19 All Time" and by the time "The Sun, Moon, and Herbs" was released, he had gained a 20 notable cult following; and

21 WHEREAS, Dr. John was also a prominent musician and throughout his career he 22 performed, recorded, motivated, and worked with Mick Jagger & The Rolling Stones, Carly 23 Simon, The Beatles, Chocolate Milk, James Taylor, Neil Diamond, Van Morrison, Eric 24 Clapton, Allen Toussaint, The Meters, LN & R, Bonnie Raitt, Irma Thomas, LeAnn Rimes, 25 Wardell Quezergue, King Floyd, Fats Domino, Duck Butter, Greg Allman, The Neville
26 Brothers, Alice Cooper, Darlene Love, Bruce Springsteen, John Batiste, Little Richard, 27 Guitar Slim, and many more; and

28 WHEREAS, Dr. John worked extensively with musician Deacon John Moore, 29 President of the Musicians Union, with numerous studio recordings expanding blues, pop, 30 jazz, boogie-woogie, and rock and roll; and

1 WHEREAS, Dr. John has a list of movie credits including The Last Waltz; Sgt.
2 Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band; and Blues Brothers; he also teamed up with Aaron 3 Neville, Aretha Franklin at Super Bowl XL and closed the Grammy Awards in 2006; and

4 WHEREAS, in January 2008, Dr. John was inducted into The Louisiana Music Hall
5 of Fame and later in February, performed on Saturday Night Live, and released his Grammy 6 Award-winning City that Care Forgot about Hurricane Katrina's devastation in New 7 Orleans; and

8 WHEREAS, he reigned as "King of the Krewe du Vieux" for the 2010 New Orleans 9 Mardi Gras season and entertained the crowds at many Mardi Gras Mambos; and

10 WHEREAS, on May 13, 2010, Dr. John played alongside The Roots on Late Night 11 with Jimmy Fallon and was warmly greeted by Jimmy's first guest, Keith Richards; and

12 WHEREAS, Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards also issued a Statement of 13 Recognition to Dr. John for, ". . . embodying the culture of the state from New Orleans to 14 the Bayou".

15 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 16 express condolences on the death of Malcolm John Rebennack Jr, better known as Dr. John; 17 does hereby commend him posthumously for the indelible mark he left on his community, 18 state, and nation, and does hereby offer thoughts and prayers for peace and comfort to those 19 who mourn him.

20 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 21 family of Malcolm John Rebennack Jr.
