

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 70

BY SENATORS MCPHERSON AND DONAHUE AND REPRESENTATIVE DIXON

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To commend Barbara Clover on being named the 2010 National Secondary Art Educator of the Year by the National Art Education Association.

WHEREAS, the National Art Education Association promotes art education through professional development, service, advancement of knowledge, and leadership; and

WHEREAS, it is the leading professional organization for art educators in pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade, as well as college and university professors and researchers, administrators, and museum educators; and

WHEREAS, the National Art Education Association represents more than twenty thousand members from across the world; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Clover was selected as the 2010 National Secondary Art Educator of the Year for her exemplary contributions toward the promotion of art education; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Clover is president of the Louisiana Art Education Association and views her affiliation with that organization as a vehicle to advocate for the arts and for art education; and

WHEREAS, she has been an art teacher at Holy Savior Menard Central High School in Alexandria for sixteen years where she has challenged her students to create art; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Clover has been at the forefront of many local art events and has chaired the Youth Art Month program for the Louisiana Art Education Association; and

WHEREAS, she has been honored nationally five times for her work with Youth Art Month, including four Awards of Excellence and one Claire Flanagan Memorial Grand Award, which is the highest award presented by the Council for Art Education, Inc.; and

ENROLLED

WHEREAS, Barbara Clover's dedication to art education is manifested in her ability to develop creative individuals, to prepare them to be successful adults, and to inspire a lifelong love and appreciation for art.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby commend and congratulate Barbara Clover on being named the 2010 National Secondary Art Educator of the Year by the National Art Education Association.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Barbara Clover.
