

1           WHEREAS, as a radio talk show host, he was a household name with the Ed Buggs
2 Show, having an informative, thought provoking, and entertaining format, on WJBO-AM 3 in 1997 and later at WIBR-AM, 1300 AM; and

4           WHEREAS, Ed Buggs ended each of his talk show broadcasts with "If you're living 5 your life as if there is no God... you better be right. Shalom.."; and

6           WHEREAS, he had an entrepreneurial spirit and engaged in a variety of business 7 ventures from real estate to clothing manufacturing, more recently participating as a 8 principal in the acquisition and management of broadcast properties and being a motivational 9 speaker: and

10           WHEREAS, Ed Buggs was involved in his community extensively, being the 11 recipient of numerous awards; and

12           WHEREAS, he was a Christian who openly professed his faith through Bible study 13 groups, church, and participation in a prison ministry, always striving to improve the lives 14 of others; and

15           WHEREAS, Ed Buggs was a loving and kind individual who loved Baton Rouge; 16 and

17           WHEREAS, while being preceded in death by his father, he is survived by his 18 mother, Hazel F. Buggs; former wife, Debby Herman Buggs; brother, Clarence Buggs; 19 sister, Jacentha Buggs-Morrison and husband Bob Morrison; nephews, Robert and Edward 20 Morrison; niece, Gabrielle Morrison; and godsister, Rosalind Wright; and

21           WHEREAS, Ed Buggs was a local legend and trail-blazing pioneer who will be 22 missed by his family, friends, and all who had the opportunity to know him.

23           THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby 24 express sincere and heartfelt condolences upon the death of Ed Buggs.

25           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 26 family of Edward Claude Buggs, Jr.
