SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 170

BY SENATOR DUPLESSIS

CRIME/PUNISHMENT. Creates a task force to study and make recommendations regarding crime against nature by solicitation.

1 A RESOLUTION

2 To create and provide for the Task Force on Crime Against Nature by Solicitation.

3 WHEREAS, R.S. 14:89, crime against nature by solicitation, prohibits solicitation 4 of another with the intent to engage in any unnatural carnal copulation for compensation; and

5 WHEREAS, R.S. 14:82, the crime of prostitution, prohibits similar conduct; and

6 WHEREAS, the criminal statutes do not specifically define "unnatural carnal 7 copulation"; and

8 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court, in Lawrence v. Texas, (539 U.S. 558 9 (2003)), permitted adults to "choose to enter upon this relationship in the confines of their 10 homes and their own private lives and still retain their dignity as free persons"; and

11 WHEREAS, the Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in *Louisiana Electorate
12 of Gays and Lesbians, Inc. v. Connick*, 902 So.2d 1090 (La. App. 5 Cir. 2005), found parts 13 of the crime against nature statute unconstitutional in light of Lawrence; and 14 WHEREAS, the Louisiana State Law Institute has recommended that R.S.

15 14:89(A)(1), (B)(1), (2), and (3), and (C) be repealed in their entirety; and

16 WHEREAS, the crime against nature statute has a potential sentence of two thousand 17 dollars, imprisonment with or without hard labor for five years, or both, on a first offense; 18 and

1 WHEREAS, both the prostitution and crime against nature by solicitation statutes 2 have a potential sentence of five hundred dollars, imprisonment for six months, or both; and

3 WHEREAS, male sex workers are more likely to be charged with crime against 4 nature rather than prostitution, and thus face a harsher penalty, if the other participant is 5 male; and

6 WHEREAS, there exists a question of whether the crime against nature by 7 solicitation statute is constitutional or in violation of a person's due process rights.
