18 into compliance. If the city or town does not comply with this section and notify the 19 complainant and the attorney general of such compliance within 10 business days after receipt of 20 the complaint, the complainant may file a written complaint with the attorney general, including

27 such violation, and shall issue an order to compel immediate and future compliance with this 28 section. The attorney general may, without holding additional hearings, impose additional civil
