The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to the efficiency of subsidized housing procedures.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 121B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 32F the following new section:-

3 Section 32G. (a) Housing authorities and public housing agencies or their subcontractors
4 who are administering federal or state public housing or rental assistance programs, and owners 5 or managers of affordable housing developments shall offer electronic fund transfer 6 arrangements to tenants and participants in such programs as a means of ensuring direct and 7 timely payment of rent and satisfaction of debts. Such arrangements shall be available to tenants
8 and participants at no cost and on a voluntary basis. Similar arrangements shall also be offered 9 to otherwise qualified applicants who owe debts to housing authorities or public housing 10 agencies or affordable housing developments that otherwise would be a barrier to acceptance 11 into such public housing, rental assistance, or affordable housing programs provided that the 12 applicants enters into a repayment arrangement which is reasonable in light of the income and 13 circumstances of the applicant. Late payment penalties under section 32 of chapter 121B of the 14 General Laws and costs under section 11 of chapter 186 of the General Laws, if applicable, shall

15 be waived by the Commonwealth for any tenants or participants participating in such 16 arrangements.

17 (b) Housing authorities and public housing agencies who administer state or federal 18 public housing or rental assistance programs and owners or managers of affordable housing 19 developments shall permit tenants or participants in such programs to designate, at the inception 20 of their tenancy or subsidy, or at any point thereafter, a third party who shall receive a copy of 21 any notice provided to the tenant or participant by the housing authority, housing subsidy 22 provider, or owner of an affordable housing development, including any notice reflecting an 23 intention to terminate the tenant's tenancy or participation in a subsidy program. Such third 24 parties may include a friend, family member, a caseworker, or such other person at the tenant 25 may designate. Such designation may include authorization for release of information. Both the 26 designation for third party notice and any authorization for release of information may be 27 revoked by the tenant or participant at any time. In any case in which such designation and 28 release of information is in effect, and an adverse action with respect to the tenancy or 29 participation is under consideration, the parties shall, upon the request of the tenant or the third 30 party, confer regarding any steps that might be taken to preserve the tenancy or subsidy.
