An Act relative to fairness in debt collection.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 93K the 2 following chapter:-

3 CHAPTER 93L.

4 DEBT COLLECTION FAIRNESS ACT.

5 Section 1. As used in this chapter, the following words shall have the following meanings 6 unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

7 “Charge-off”, a declaration by a creditor that a delinquent consumer loan, consumer 8 credit account or other consumer debt has been removed from a creditor’s books as an asset and 9 treated as a loss or expense.

10 “Consumer”, a natural person.

11 “Consumer form contract”, a contract in writing between a business and a consumer 12 involving goods or services including, but not limited to, credit or financial services, primarily 13 for personal, family or household purposes, that has been drafted by the business for use with 14 more than 1 consumer, unless the only other consumer is the spouse of the first consumer.

15 “Consumer debt”, an obligation or alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money arising 16 out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance or services that are the subject of the 17 transaction are primarily for personal, family or household purposes, whether or not the 18 obligation has been reduced to judgment; provided, however, that “consumer debt” shall not 19 include a common expense or charge levied under chapter 183A or 183B; an obligation or 20 alleged obligation to pay common expenses or charges levied pursuant to a covenant or 21 agreement running with the land; or a residential mortgage loan. A “residential mortgage loan” 22 shall mean any loan primarily for personal, family, or household use that is secured by a 23 mortgage, deed of trust, or other equivalent consensual security interest on a dwelling as defined 24 in 15 U.S.C. section 1602(w) or residential real estate upon which is constructed or intended to 25 be constructed a dwelling as so defined.

26 “Creditor”, a person or entity to whom a debt is owed, including a judgment creditor and 27 any other person or entity that obtains an execution on a debt; provided, however, that “creditor” 28 shall not include an organization of unit owners as defined in section 1 of chapter 183A, a time-29 share association under chapter 183B or a homeowner association or entity to whom debt is 30 owed pursuant to a covenant or agreement running with the land.

31 “Debt buyer”, a person or entity that is engaged in the business of purchasing delinquent 32 or charged-off consumer loans or consumer credit accounts or other delinquent consumer debt

33 for collection purposes, whether it collects the debt itself or hires a third-party for collection or 34 an attorney for litigation in order to collect the debt.

35 “Debt collector”, any person or entity who uses an instrumentality of interstate commerce 36 or the mails in any business the principal purpose of which is the collection of a debt, or who 37 regularly collects or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, a debt owed or due or asserted to 38 be owed or due another.

39 “Earnings”, gross compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether 40 denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, payment for skilled, personal or professional 41 services or otherwise, whether earned as an employee or as an independent contractor.

42 “Execution”, an attachment, levy, garnishment or other disablement, freeze or seizure of 43 property, whether pre-judgment or post-judgment, to satisfy a debt or a creditor’s exercise of a 44 right of setoff to collect a debt; provided, however, that it shall not include self-help repossession 45 of collateral.

46 “Exempt”, not subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, setoff, self-help, 47 seizure or other form of process, court order, creditor or other action for debt collection or 48 restitution or other equitable claim unless otherwise specified.

49 “Garnishment”, a legal or equitable procedure through which the earnings, property or 50 funds of a person are required by a court of competent jurisdiction to be withheld by another 51 entity for payment of a debt to a creditor.

52 “Trustee”, a trustee served pursuant to chapter 246.

53           Section 2. (a) Notwithstanding section 34 of chapter 235, if earnings of a consumer are 54 attached to satisfy a judgment for collection of a consumer debt, that consumer's earnings for a 55 week that are less than 70 times the greater of the federal minimum hourly wage under 29 U.S.C.
56 section 206(a)(1) or the state minimum hourly wage under section 1 of chapter 151 in effect at 57 the time shall be exempt from the attachment and not subject to garnishment. This exemption 58 shall be adjusted pro rata for a pay period that is more than weekly.

59           (b) If the consumer's earnings exceed the amount that is exempt under subsection (a), not 60 more than 10 per cent of the excess earnings shall be subject to garnishment.

61           (c) Notwithstanding subsection (a) and (b), a judgment debtor may seek to exempt 62 additional wages from attachment by making a claim of undue financial hardship by filing a 63 form with the court. Such form shall be prepared by the court to allow a judgment debtor to 64 easily identify the basis for the judgment debtor's request for an additional exemption. Upon the 65 filing of the financial hardship form, the court shall hold a hearing as soon as practicable to 66 determine the total amount that shall be exempted from the judgment debtors wages.

67           (d) If more than 1 order of attachment for a consumer debt is served on a trustee with 68 respect to the same consumer, the order of attachment served earliest shall take priority. If an 69 order of attachment with greater priority consumes the entirety of the income that is available for 70 garnishment under the preceding subsections, then the consumer's earnings shall not be 71 garnished pursuant to the order of attachment with lower priority.

72           (e) The protections for earnings under this section apply to consumers whose physical 73 place of employment is in the commonwealth, notwithstanding that the consumer's employer 74 may have corporate offices or other places of business located outside the commonwealth.

75 (f) This section shall not apply in a proceeding to attach earnings or a pension to satisfy a 76 divorce, separate maintenance or child support order of a court of competent jurisdiction and in 77 such a proceeding, including an action for trustee process to enforce a support order under 78 section 36A of chapter 208, federal law limiting the amounts that may be trustee, assigned or 79 attached in order to satisfy an alimony, maintenance or child support order shall apply.

80 (g) Except as otherwise permitted by law, an amount held by a trustee for a defendant in a 81 pension, as defined in section 28 of chapter 246 shall be reserved in the hands of the trustee and 82 shall be exempt from attachment to satisfy a judgment for collection of a consumer debt.

83 (h) An employer shall not take adverse action against an employee or refuse to hire an 84 individual because of one or more garnishments for consumer debts or because of obligations 85 that any garnishments impose against the employer. An employer who violates this section shall 86 be liable in a civil action, action for contempt or other appropriate proceeding to the employee or 87 individual for the wages and employment benefits lost by the employee or individual from the 88 time of the unlawful discipline, suspension, refusal to hire or discharge to the period of 89 reinstatement and an additional penalty of not more than $1,000.

90 (i) Income from child support payments shall be exempt from collection.

91 Section 3. (a) Notwithstanding section 2 of chapter 260, an action for the collection of a 92 consumer debt shall be commenced only within four years after the cause of action accrues. This 93 limitations period shall apply to a consumer debt, whether the claim sounds in contract, account 94 stated, open account or other cause, and notwithstanding another applicable statute of limitations, 95 unless a shorter limitations period is applicable. This time period also applies to a claim for a 96 consumer debt based on a contract or instrument under seal.

97 (b) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a creditor, debt buyer, or debt collector from 98 entering into a repayment agreement that shall be legally binding on the consumer beyond the 99 applicable limitations period on the consumer debt in subsection (a) so long as the repayment 100 agreement is in writing, signed by both parties and based on new consideration and does not 101 require the consumer to make payments from exempt income.

102 (c) Notwithstanding section 14 of chapter 260, a payment on a consumer debt after the 103 limitations period in subsection (a) has run shall not revive or extend the limitations period or bar 104 the consumer from asserting a defense to the collection of a consumer debt.

105 (d) No creditor, debt buyer, or debt collector shall bring a suit or initiate an arbitration or 106 other legal proceeding to collect a consumer debt if the applicable limitations period on the 107 consumer debt in subsection (a) has expired.

108 (e) A waiver by a consumer of a protection or right under this section is void and shall 109 not be enforced.

110 (f) Notwithstanding section 20 of chapter 260 or any other general or special law to the 111 contrary, an action upon a judgment or decree on a consumer debt, including an execution upon 112 or trustee process based on the judgment or decree and other activity to collect on the judgment, 113 shall be commenced within 10 years after the entry of the judgment or decree. A judgment 114 whose enforcement has been barred by the running of this limitations period shall not be revived 115 or renewed.

116 Section 4. (a) For matters arising from a consumer debt, a plaintiff who has obtained a 117 judgment shall provide written notice to a consumer at least 30 days prior to a supplementary 118 proceeding in a civil action for the examination of a consumer pursuant to section 14 of chapter

119 224 or a payment review hearing in a small claims action pursuant to Uniform Small Claims 120 Rule 7(i). The notice shall inform the consumer of the opportunity to submit a financial affidavit 121 in a form prescribed by the court and signed under the penalties of perjury. If the consumer 122 indicates through the financial affidavit that all income and assets are exempt and files it as 123 directed by the court, the court shall acknowledge receipt and inform both parties that the hearing 124 is cancelled. Once a signed financial affidavit form indicating that all income and assets are 125 exempt is on file in that case, no further supplementary proceedings or payment review hearings 126 may be scheduled unless the judgment creditor presents evidence of the judgment debtor's non-127 exempt income or assets and the court determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that 128 there are non-exempt assets or income warranting the scheduling of a new supplementary 129 proceeding or payment review hearing.

130 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 18 and 20 of chapter 224 or any other 131 applicable law or court rule, for matters arising from a consumer debt no capias or other warrant 132 to compel the attendance of a consumer shall be issued for failure of the consumer to appear at a 133 supplementary proceeding in a civil action for the examination of a consumer pursuant to section
134 14 of chapter 224 or a payment review hearing in a small claims action pursuant to Uniform
135 Small Claims Rule 7(i). Instead failure to appear shall trigger the scheduling of a show cause 136 hearing for the court to determine whether a capias or other warrant to compel the attendance of 137 a consumer should issue. No capias or other warrant shall issue to compel the attendance of a 138 consumer without evidence that notice of the show cause hearing was served on the consumer 139 either by signed return receipt or by a sworn return of service.

140 (c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 18 and 20 of chapter 224 or any other 141 applicable law or court rule, a consumer that is compelled to attend pursuant to a capias or other

142 warrant shall be brought before the court the same day. The consumer shall be given the 143 opportunity to complete the financial affidavit described in paragraph (a). The capias or other 144 warrant shall be satisfied by the consumer's appearance in court or completion of the financial 145 affidavit indicating that all forms of income and assets are exempt.

146 (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 18 and 20 of chapter 224 or any other 147 applicable law or court rule, no person shall be imprisoned or jailed for failure to pay a consumer 148 debt, nor shall any person be imprisoned or jailed for contempt of or failure to comply with a 149 court order to pay a consumer debt in part or in full.

150 Section 5. (a) If a plaintiff prevails in an action to collect a consumer debt, interest 151 computed pursuant to section 6C of chapter 231 or section 8 of chapter 235 shall be limited to a 152 fixed rate of interest of 6 per cent per annum. A higher rate of interest on the judgment shall not 153 be permitted, including the rate provided for in the contract.

154 (b) If the plaintiff prevails in an action to collect a consumer debt, the plaintiff shall be 155 entitled to collect attorney's fees only if the contract or other document evidencing the 156 indebtedness sets forth an obligation of the consumer to pay attorney's fees, subject to the 157 following provisions: (i) if the contract or other document evidencing indebtedness provides for 158 attorney's fees in some specific percentage, the provision and obligation shall be valid and 159 enforceable up to but not in excess of 15 per cent of the amount of the debt excluding attorney's 160 fees and collection costs; (ii) if a contract or other document evidencing indebtedness provides 161 for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees by the consumer , without specifying a specific 162 percentage, the provision shall be construed to mean the lesser of 15 per cent of the amount of 163 the debt, excluding attorney's fees and collection costs, or the amount of attorney's fees

164 calculated by a reasonable rate for such cases multiplied by the amount of time reasonably 165 expended to obtain the judgment; and (iii) the documentation setting forth a party's obligation to 166 pay attorney's fees shall be provided to the court before a court may enforce those provisions; 167 provided, however, that the documentation shall not include materials that the plaintiff has 168 already filed together with the complaint in compliance with applicable court rules.

169 (c) If the consumer is the prevailing party in an action to collect a consumer debt, the 170 consumer shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees, unless the case is 171 voluntarily dismissed with prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1)(i) of the Massachusetts Rules of 172 Civil Procedure or a stipulation of dismissal explicitly provides otherwise. The amount of the 173 debt that the plaintiff sought shall not be a factor in determining the reasonableness of the award.
174 In the alternative, at the consumer's election, a prevailing consumer in an action to collect a 175 consumer debt shall be awarded the amount of attorney's fees that the plaintiff would have been 176 entitled to collect if the plaintiff had been the prevailing party.

177 Section 6. (a) A violation of sections 2 to 5, inclusive, shall also be a violation of chapter 178 93A.

179 (b) A portion of a contract, including a consumer form contract, that violates sections 2 to 180 5, inclusive, shall be void.

181 SECTION 2. Section 28 of chapter 246 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 182 adding the following paragraph:-

183 This section shall not apply in a proceeding to attach earnings or a pension to satisfy a 184 judgment for collection of a consumer debt, as defined in section 1 of chapter 93L, and in such 185 an action said chapter 93L shall apply.

186 SECTION 3. Section 3 of Chapter 93L shall not apply to a consumer debt for which the 187 cause of action accrued before January 1, 2022; provided, however, that subsection (b) of section 188 3 of said chapter 93L shall apply to payments made after the effective date of this act. Provided 189 further that subsection (b) of section 6 of chapter 93L shall not apply to a contract, including a 190 consumer form contract that is in effect before January 1, 2022.

191 SECTION 4. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2023.
