The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

An Act making public higher education in Massachusetts free for residents of the state.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 15A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 5A the following section:

3 Section 5B. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the 4 contrary, no tuition or mandatory curriculum fees shall be charged to any resident of the state at 5 any community college listed in section 5. The commonwealth, not the community colleges, 6 shall bear the cost of providing free community colleges for residents of the state.

7 SECTION 2. Chapter 15A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016 Official
8 Edition, is hereby amended by deleting section 9B and substituting the following sections:

9 Section 9B(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the 10 contrary, no tuition or mandatory curriculum fees shall be charged to any resident of the state at 11 any community college listed in section 5 nor at any state university or the university of 12 Massachusetts. The commonwealth, not the community colleges, state universities, or the 13 university of Massachusetts, shall bear the cost of providing free public higher education for 14 residents of the state.

15 9B(ii) There shall be a program, subject to appropriation, of needs-based financial 16 assistance, administered by the board of higher education, to provide full or partial scholarships
17 for non-residents of the commonwealth enrolled in and pursuing a part-time or full-time program 18 of higher education in any of the institutions of higher education in the commonwealth. The 19 council shall establish guidelines to govern said program. Said guidelines shall be filed with the 20 house and senate committees on ways and means and the joint committee on higher education 21 within thirty days of the approval by the council of said guidelines.
