HOUSE No. 1273

By Ms. Ehrlich of Marblehead, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1273) of Lori A. Ehrlich and others relative to confining animals in a motor vehicle. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act to Protect the Health and Safety of Animals in Cars.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 272 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended by inserting, after
2 Section 77B, the following new section:

3 Section 77C:

4 (a) No owner or person shall confine an animal in a motor vehicle in a manner that could
5 reasonably be expected to threaten the health of the animal due to exposure to extreme heat or 6 cold. without proper ventilation or other protection from such heat or cold.

7 (b) In order to protect the health and safety of an animal, an animal control officer, law
8 enforcement officer or fire fighter who has probable cause to believe that this section is being
9 violated shall have the authority to enter such motor vehicle by any reasonable means necessary
10 under the circumstances, after making a reasonable effort under the circumstances to locate the 11 owner or other responsible person. A law enforcement officer or animal control officer may enter

12 the motor vehicle for the sole purpose of release of the animal and may not search the vehicle
13 unless otherwise permitted by law.

14 (c) An animal control officer, law enforcement or fire fighter animal control officer who 15 removes an animal in accordance with this section shall, in a secure and conspicuous location on 16 or within the motor vehicle, leave written notice bearing the officer's or agent's name and office,
17 and the address of the location where the animal may be retrieved. The owner may retrieve the 18 animal only after payment of all charges that have accrued for the maintenance, care, medical 19 treatment, and impoundment of the animal.

20 (d) A law enforcement or animal control officer who removes an animal from a motor
21 vehicle pursuant to this section is immune from criminal or civil liability that might otherwise
22 result from the removal.

23 (e) A law enforcement or animal control officer may seek a complaint against the owner
24 or keeper of an animal who is found to have violated the provisions of this section. This section
25 shall be subject to enforcement under the provisions of section 21D of Chapter 40.

26 1. The penalty for the first violation shall be $75;

27 2. The penalty for the second violation shall be $100 dollars;

28 3. The penalty for the third and each subsequent violation shall be $300.

29 (f) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution for a violation of section 77 of 30 Chapter 272 of the Massachusetts General Laws.
