The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act creating a task force to study the use of the internet by sex offenders.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The joint committee on public safety and homeland security shall convene 2 a task force to report on electronic communications and the feasibility of tracking sex offender
3 internet use, via methods including but not limited to: (1) internet protocol addresses, (2) media
4 access control addresses, (3) internet service providers, (4) electronic mail, and (5) instant
5 messaging. The task force’s study shall address, but not be limited to, the following areas: (1) 6 current laws and regulations; (2) other states’ laws, regulations, and efforts; (3) the feasibility of 7 registration of sex offenders’ online addresses; and (4) relevant civil liberties issues.

8 SECTION 2. (a) The task force shall consist of 14 members: Four members of the joint 9 committee on public safety and homeland security, one of whom shall be appointed by the house

10 committee chair, one of whom shall be appointed by the senate committee chair, one of whom 11 shall be appointed by the house minority leader, and one of whom shall be appointed by the 12 senate minority leader; four members of the joint committee on telecommunications, utilities, 13 and energy, one of whom shall be appointed by the house committee chair, one of whom shall be 14 appointed by the senate committee chair, one of whom shall be appointed by the house minority 15 leader, and one of whom shall be appointed by the senate minority leader; one member of the 16 state police, who shall be appointed by the colonel of the state police; one licensed attorney, with 17 experience in civil rights' cases, who shall be appointed by the attorney general; and four experts 18 who shall be appointed by the commissioners of the department of public utilities upon a 19 majority vote, provided two of the experts have had significant knowledge of a private 20 telecommunications company.

21 The task force may consult with other government agencies, both federal and state, as 22 well as members of the telecommunication community.

23 SECTION 3. The task force shall submit a report, including any draft legislation and 24 regulations, to the joint committee on public safety and homeland security within 12 months of 25 the passage of this act.
