The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to a special commission to study condominium law.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There shall be a special commission established to study condominium
2 law, relative to: owner’s rights, association and management responsibilities to owners, 3 independent audits of accounts held for improvements, upgrades, and maintenance, oversight 4 authority for the development of regulations by an appropriate state office or agency, and any 5 other matters relevant to this subject. This special sub-committee shall meet and may hold 6 hearings and invite testimony from experts and the public to help generate a report to the House
7 and Senate no later than January 1, 2020 which shall proffer recommendations to establish future
8 condominium regulations and statute. The committee shall consist of seven members, two each 9 appointed by the Speaker of the House and the Senate President and three appointed by the 10 Governor, one of whom shall be the Chair, and must include at least the following individuals:

11 An attorney (1) who specializes in condominium law and whose client base is comprised 12 mostly (over 51%) of condo unit owners, unit owner groups or aggrieved unit owners and whose 13 client base is not comprised mostly of Property Management companies and/or condo Boards of 14 Trustees.

15 An individual condo unit owners who are not members of their Board of Trustees

16 A Certified Property Manager who possess either the PCAM, CMCA and/or the AMS 17 designation. (Legislators or legislative aides) who can review with the committee laws that were 18 successfully passed in other states to determine if we can utilize similar statutes.

19 Areas that shall be explored by the committee and for which subsequent 20 recommendations should be developed include (but are not limited to):

21 Board of Trustee meetings, including the procedures and elections thereto;

22 Annual Meetings

23 Unit Owner's rights and enforcement

24 Association and management responsibilities to owners

25 Independent audits of accounts held for improvements, upgrades, and maintenance

26 Distribution of information, documents and meeting minutes by the Management
27 company or Board members, to unit owners

28 How condo fees are determined and are increased

- 29 Oversight authority for the development of regulations by an appropriate state office or
- 30 agency
- 31 Formal process to mediate/resolve Unit Owner and Board disputes
- 32 Rules and Regulations, fees, fines and assessments
- 33 Any other matters relevant to this subject
