The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to eminent domain.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 79 of the General Laws, as appearing in the most 2 recent edition, is hereby amended by striking out section 1 and inserting in place thereof the 3 following section:-

4 Section 1. Order of Taking; contents.

5 The taking of real estate or of any interest therein by right of eminent domain may be effected in 6 the following manner. A board of officers upon whom authority to take real estate by eminent 7 domain on behalf of any body politic or corporate has been conferred by law, having first 8 complied with all the preliminary requirements prescribed by law, may adopt an order of taking,

9 which shall contain a description of the land taken sufficiently accurate for identification, and 10 shall state the interest therein taken and the purpose for which such property is taken, and shall 11 contain the names and addresses of the putative owners of all land taken as shown on the records
12 of the assessors of the municipality in which such land is taken as of the January first 13 immediately preceding the municipal fiscal year in which such land is taken, and in case such 14 taking is for an improvement for which betterments may be assessed, shall state whether 15 betterments are to be assessed therefor. In case there are trees upon the land taken, or structures 16 affixed thereto, the order of taking shall state whether the same are to be included in the taking, 17 and, if they are not so included, shall allow the owner a reasonable time after the date of the 18 order or after entry or possession to remove the same, to be specified in the order. The failure to 19 include the names and addresses of one or more of said owners of the land taken as provided for 20 in the preceding sentence, or the incorrect identification of any such owner, shall not affect the 21 validity of the taking. The naming of a putative owner in an order of taking shall not constitute 22 evidence of any ownership interest; or otherwise relieve any owner of the burden of proving the 23 right to damages in an action under this chapter.

24 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
