6 Massachusetts Statutes as Section (NUMBER) of Title (NUMBER), unless there is created a

8 The Legislature declares that the authority for this act is the following:

9 1. The Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that the United 10 States Federal government is authorized to exercise only those powers delegated to it in the 11 United States Constitution and nothing more. The guaranty of those limitations on federal power 12 is a matter of contract between the state and people of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and 13 the United States at of the time that the United States Constitution was agreed upon and adopted
14 by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the United States;

15 2. Article IV of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts provides that 16 the people of the commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a 17 free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy 18 every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter, be by them expressly 19 delegated to the United States of America in Congress assembled;

20 3. Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution provides that laws of the United 21 States are the supreme law of the land provided that they are made in pursuance of the powers
22 delegated to the federal government in the United States Constitution;

23 4. Article I Section 9, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution provides that the 24 Privilege of the Writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in Cases of 25 Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it;

26 5. Article XXVIII of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts provides 27 that no person can in any case be subject to law-martial, or to any penalties or pains, by virtue of 28 that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but 29 by authority of the legislature;

30 6. The First Amendment of the United States Constitution provides that the Congress of 31 the United States shall make no law prohibiting the right of the people to petition the 32 Government for a redress of grievances;

34 people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches
35 and seizures, shall not be violated;

40 a right to be free from deprivation of life, liberty, or property, without Due Process of law;

42 no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or 43 privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled, or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, 44 but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land;

52 Massachusetts Statutes as Section (NUMBER) of Title (NUMBER), unless there is created a 53 duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

54 The Legislature finds that:

55 1. Section 1021 of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2012 purports to assert the 56 President's authority to not only arrest suspected terrorists, but also to determine whether or not a 57 trial, including what type of trial, will be held for those arrested;

58 2. Section 1022 of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2012 requires detention

63 follows, "The requirement to detain a person in military custody under this section does not 64 extend to citizens of the United States";

65 4. The enactment into law by the United States Congress of Sections 1021 and 1022 of 66 the National Defense Authorization Act of 2012, Public Law Number 112-81, is inimical to the 67 liberty, security and well-being of the people of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and was 68 adopted by the United States Congress in violation of the limits of federal power in United States
69 Constitution, including but not limited to, those listed in Section 2 of this act.

70 SECTION 4. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Commonwealth of 71 Massachusetts Statutes as Section (NUMBER) of Title (NUMBER), unless there is created a

74 in any way with the implementation of Sections 1021 and 1022 of the National Defense
75 Authorization Act of 2012 within the boundaries of this state;

76 2. The Department of Public Safety is hereby directed to report to the Governor and the 77 Legislature any attempt by agencies or agents of the United States Federal Government, or any 78 private contractor or corporation working on behalf of the Federal Government to secure the 79 implementation of Sections 1021 and 1022 of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2012
80 through the operations of that or any other state department;

81 3. The indefinite detention, prosecution according to the law of war, and transfer to a 82 foreign jurisdiction of persons as provided for by Sections 1021 and 1022 of the National 83 Defense Authorization Act of 2012 are in direct contravention to the limits on federal power as 84 specified in Section 2 of this act and are illegal within the boundaries of the Commonwealth of 85 Massachusetts;
