The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act establishing a right to counsel in civil asset forfeiture cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Subsection (d) of section 47 of chapter 94C of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 striking the second, third, and fourth paragraphs and inserting in place thereof the following:-

3 SECTION 1

4 Upon the filing of a claim to the property by any person other than the commonwealth,
5 the clerk of the court shall determine whether the person is a natural person. Upon a 6 determination that the claimant is a natural person, the chief counsel of the committee for public
7 counsel services shall assign the case to either the public counsel division or the private counsel 8 division.

9 The final order of the court shall provide that said moneys and the proceeds of any such 10 sale shall be distributed to the Counsel for Indigent Salary Enhancement Trust Fund established 11 under section 35Z of chapter 10 of the General Laws, and shall then be expended without further

12 appropriation to pay (1) counsel assigned or appointed pursuant to this section, and (2) counsel 13 assigned or appointed to represent parties in summary process proceedings.

14 SECTION 17

15 The committee shall establish, supervise and maintain a system for the appointment of 16 counsel for the provision of legal services for indigents subject to summary process or similar 17 proceedings and resulting appeals under chapter 239 and section 19 of chapter 139 as provided 18 by section 2B of chapter 239 and section 19½ of chapter 139. Legal aid organizations that 19 provide representation to indigent individuals and families are eligible for appointment and may 20 be designated as counsel within the meaning of this section.
