The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act to prohibit the sale of "energy drinks" to persons under the age of 18.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 270 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

3 Whoever distributes, delivers, gives away or sells, any “Energy Drink” or other
4 ingredient, substance or beverage that exceeds a caffeine content of seventy-one (71) milligrams
5 per twelve (12) ounce serving and contains taurine and glucuronolactone or a soft drink that is 6 classified as a dietary supplement not regulated by the Food and Drug Administration and that
7 contains eighty (80) or more milligrams of caffeine per eight (8) fluid ounces and generally
8 includes a combination of methylxanthines, B vitamins and herbal ingredients which are 9 advertised as being specifically designed to provide or increase energy to any persons under the 10 age of eighteen (18) shall be punished by a fine not less than fifty (50) dollars for the first

11 offense, one hundred (100) for the second offense and two hundred fifty (250) for the third
12 offense.
