The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to funeral home expenses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 9 of chapter 117A of the General Laws as appearing is hereby 2 amended by striking the section in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following new 3 section:— Section 9. The department shall provide for the decent interment of all 4 deceased persons who are at the time of death recipients of aid or assistance under this chapter,
5 all deceased persons who, although without means of support at the time of death, did not apply
6 for such aid or assistance; and all unknown persons found dead. The expense thereof may be 7 recovered of their kindred, if any, chargeable by law for their support in the manner provided in 8 this chapter; and if the expense of their funeral and interment is not paid by such kindred, an 9 amount not exceeding eleven hundred dollars shall be paid by the commonwealth; provided 10 further, that the commonwealth shall have the right of reimbursement from whatever resources 11 may exist in the estate of said person.

12 SECTION 2. Section 10 of chapter 117A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 13 amended by striking the section in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following new 14 section:— Section 10. In case of the decease of a poor and indigent person the commonwealth 15 shall pay toward the expense of the funeral and interment of such person a sum not exceeding

16 eleven hundred dollars; provided, however, that the commonwealth shall have the right of 17 reimbursement from whatever resources may exist in the estate of said person.

18 SECTION 3. Section 2 of Chapter 118 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 19 amended by striking the third paragraph in lines 29 through 35 inclusive and inserting in place
20 thereof the following new paragraph:— “The department may pay a sum not exceeding 21 eleven hundred dollars toward the funeral and interment of a recipient provided that there are 22 insufficient resources to pay for the cost of such funeral and interment. The commonwealth shall 23 have the right of reimbursement from whatever resources may exist in the estate of the 24 recipient.”

25 SECTION 4. Section 7 of Chapter 118A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 26 amended by striking the section in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following new 27 section:—

28 Section 7. The department shall provide to aged and disabled residents of the 29 commonwealth under this chapter a program of social services as enumerated under section two 30 of chapter eighteen. In addition to the other benefits authorized by this chapter, the department 31 may provide to such recipients grants of assistance in cases of fire, flood, or other disaster. The 32 department may pay a sum not exceeding eleven hundred dollars toward the funeral and 33 interment of a recipient provided that there are insufficient resources to pay for the cost of such 34 funeral and interment. The Commonwealth shall have the right of reimbursement from whatever 35 resources may exist in the estate of the recipient.

SECTION 5. Section 23 of Chapter 119
36 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking the fifteenth paragraph in 37 lines 138 to 145 inclusive and inserting in place there of the following new paragraph:—

38 “H. The department may pay a sum not exceeding eleven hundred dollars toward the 39 funeral and interment of a child in its care provided that there are insufficient resources to pay 40 for the cost of such funeral and interment. The Commonwealth shall have the right of 41 reimbursement from whatever resources may exist in the estate of the child.” .
