The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to spousal elective share.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 The General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, are hereby amended by inserting 2 after chapter 191B the following new chapter:-

3 CHAPTER 191C.

4 [ELECTIVE SHARE OF SURVIVING HUSBAND OR WIFE]

5 Section 1. [Definitions.] As used in this chapter the following words shall, unless the context 6 otherwise requires, have the following meanings:-

7 (1) “Decedent’s nonprobate transfers to others” means the types of transfers specifically 8 included in the elective estate under section five.

9 (2) “Fractional interest in property held in joint tenancy with the right of survivorship,” 10 whether the fractional interest is unilaterally severable or not, means the fraction, the numerator

11 of which is one and the denominator of which, if the decedent was a joint tenant, is one plus the 12 number of joint tenants who survive the decedent and which, if the decedent was not a joint 13 tenant, is the number of joint tenants.

14 (3) “Marriage,” as it relates to a transfer by the decedent during marriage, means any 15 marriage of the decedent to the decedent’s surviving spouse.

16 (4) “Nonadverse party” means a person who does not have a substantial beneficial interest in 17 the trust or other property arrangement that would be adversely affected by the exercise or 18 nonexercise of the power that he [or she] possesses respecting the trust or other property 19 arrangement. A person having a general power of appointment over property is deemed to have 20 a beneficial interest in the property.

21 (5) “Power” or “power of appointment” includes a power to designate the beneficiary of a 22 beneficiary designation.

23 (6) “Presently exercisable general power of appointment” means a power of appointment 24 under which, at the time in question, the decedent, whether or not he [or she] then had the 25 capacity to exercise the power, held a power to create a present or future interest in himself [or 26 herself], his [or her] creditors, his [or her] estate, or creditors of his [or her] estate, and includes a 27 power to revoke or invade the principal of a trust or other property arrangement.

28 (7) “Probate estate” means property that would pass by intestate succession if the decedent 29 dies without a valid will.

30 (8) “Property” includes values subject to a beneficiary designation.

32 annuity trust, a unitrust, or a similar arrangement.

34 release of a presently exercisable general power of appointment held by the decedent, and (B) an 35 exercise, release, or lapse of a general power of appointment that the decedent, created in himself 36 [or herself].

37 (11) “Transfers by a testamentary substitute” means those nonprobate transfers of the type 38 specifically included in the elective estate by the provisions of section five.

39 (12) “Surviving husband or wife.” A person who was married to the decedent at the time of 40 his or her death.

41 Section 2. [Elective Share - Relinquishment of Election.]

42 (a) The surviving husband or wife of a person who dies domiciled in Massachusetts may elect, 43 under the limitations and conditions stated in this chapter, to claim the value of such portion of 44 the elective estate of the deceased spouse as he or she is given under this chapter in lieu of any 45 provisions that may have been made in a will for him or for her and any provisions under the 46 intestacy laws for him or for her and any provisions that may have been made for him or for her 47 in any testamentary substitute included in the elective estate. The election provided by this 48 chapter is subject to the provisions of section thirty-six of chapter two hundred and nine. The 49 right, if any, of the surviving husband or wife of a person who dies domiciled outside this 50 commonwealth to take an elective share in property in this commonwealth is governed by the 51 law of the decedent’s domicile at death.

52 (b) Spouses are entitled to opt out of the provisions of this chapter by relinquishing the election 53 provided by this chapter. A spouse, by a writing subscribed by said spouse, may relinquish the 54 election granted by this chapter as to the entire elective estate or a portion thereof or as to any 55 particular property. A relinquishment is effective, in accordance with its terms, whether executed 56 before or after the marriage of the spouses; whether executed before, on or after the effective 57 date of this chapter; whether unilateral in form, executed only by the maker thereof, or bilateral 58 in form, executed by both spouses; whether absolute or conditional; whether executed with or 59 without consideration; and whether executed during the lifetime of the other spouse or after his 60 or her death.

61 (c) Language that relinquish, renounce, waive, release, abandon, or disclaim all rights in the 62 estate of the other spouse, or substantially equivalent language, is a relinquishment of election 63 against any property included in the elective estate under this chapter. Language that relinquish, 64 renounce, waive, release, abandon, or disclaim rights under a particular will or testamentary 65 substitute or an interest in particular property, or substantially equivalent language, is a 66 relinquishment only of the particular rights or property identified therein with reasonable 67 particularity.

68 (d) A relinquishment executed after the effective date of this chapter is sufficient if in writing 69 and subscribed by the maker thereof, acknowledged before a notary public in form and content 70 substantially as follows:

78 right to consult a lawyer regarding my rights under Massachusetts law.

111 (d) Unless it provides to the contrary, an instrument of transfer to a third party 112 executed by both spouses, or executed by one spouse and consented to in writing by the other 113 spouse, is a relinquishment of the election under this chapter by each spouse against the other in 114 the property transferred.

115 (e) Unless it provides to the contrary, a valid written agreement that relinquishes, 116 renounces, waives, releases, abandons, or disclaims all rights in the property or estate of a 117 present or prospective spouse, or substantially equivalent language, or a complete property 118 settlement entered into after or in anticipation of separation or divorce is a relinquishment of the 119 elective share under this chapter by each spouse in the property of the other.

120 (f) If the validity of a relinquishment, renunciation, waiver, release, disclaimer, or 121 consent to transfer with respect to any property includible in the elective estate is or was 122 governed by federal law or by the law of another jurisdiction, then a valid relinquishment, 123 renunciation, waiver, release, disclaimer, or consent to transfer under such law shall be deemed 124 an effective relinquishment of the election provided by this chapter.

125 Section 3. [Election Personal To Surviving Husband Or Wife.]

126 (a) [Surviving husband or wife must be living at time of election.] The election 127 provided by this chapter is personal to the surviving husband or wife, may not be reached by 128 creditors or sold, assigned, or transferred in any manner, other than a relinquishment as provided 129 in section two of this chapter, and may only be made during the lifetime of the surviving husband 130 or wife. In the case of a surviving husband or wife under conservatorship or guardianship, the 131 election may be made by the duly appointed conservator or guardian of the surviving husband or 132 wife only with the approval of the probate court upon a substituted judgment standard. No

133 surviving husband or wife or the conservator, guardian, or agent under a durable power of 134 attorney of said surviving husband or wife shall be compelled to make an election under this 135 chapter nor penalized, disadvantaged, or discriminated against by virtue of the relinquishment of 136 or failure to make an election under this chapter. Relinquishment of election or failure to make 137 an election shall not affect the eligibility of the surviving husband or wife for benefits or 138 assistance under any governmental program.

139 (b) [Incapacitated Surviving Spouse.] If the election is exercised on behalf of a surviving 140 spouse who is an incapacitated person, that portion of the elective share amounts due under 141 section seven (b) must be placed in a custodial trust for the benefit of the surviving husband or 142 wife under the provisions of chapter two hundred and three B, except as modified below. For the 143 purposes of this subsection, an election on behalf of a surviving spouse by an authorized agent 144 under a durable power of attorney is presumed to be on behalf of a surviving spouse who is an 145 incapacitated person. For purposes of the custodial trust established by this subsection, (i) the 146 electing guardian, conservator, or agent is the custodial trustee, (ii) the surviving spouse is the 147 beneficiary, and (iii) the custodial trust is deemed to have been created by the decedent spouse 148 by written transfer that takes effect at the decedent spouse's death and that directs the custodial 149 trustee to administer the custodial trust as for an incapacitated beneficiary.

150 (c) [Custodial Trust.] For the purposes of subsection (b) of this section, the chapter 151 two hundred and three B shall be applied as if section six (b) thereof were repealed and sections 152 two (e), nine (b), and seventeen (a) were amended to read as follows:

153 (1) Neither an incapacitated beneficiary nor anyone acting on behalf of an 154 incapacitated beneficiary has a power to terminate the custodial trust; but if the beneficiary

155 regains capacity, the beneficiary then acquires the power to terminate the custodial trust by 156 delivering to the custodial trustee a writing signed by the beneficiary declaring the termination.
157 If not previously terminated, the custodial trust terminates on the death of the beneficiary.

158 (2) If the beneficiary is incapacitated, the custodial trustee shall expend so much or 159 all of the custodial trust property as the custodial trustee considers advisable for the use and 160 benefit of the beneficiary and individuals who were supported by the beneficiary when the 161 beneficiary became incapacitated, or who are legally entitled to support by the beneficiary.
162 Expenditures may be made in the manner, when and to the extent that the custodial trustee 163 determines suitable and proper, without court order but with regard to other support, income, and 164 property of the beneficiary and benefits of medical or other forms of assistance from any state or 165 federal government or governmental agency for which the beneficiary must qualify on the basis 166 of need.

167 (3) Upon the beneficiary's death, the custodial trustee shall transfer the unexpended 168 custodial trust property in the following order: (i) to or as directed by the person who would 169 have taken under the disposition originally made by the beneficiary's predeceased spouse against 170 whom the elective share was taken; or (ii) under the residuary clause, if any, of the will of the 171 beneficiary's predeceased spouse against whom the elective share was taken, as if that 172 predeceased spouse died immediately after the beneficiary; or (iii) to that predeceased spouse's 173 heirs.

174 Section 4. [Amount of Elective Share.]

175 (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of this section, if the 176 deceased left issue, the surviving husband or wife shall take absolutely an amount equal to the 177 value of one-third of so much of the elective estate as does not exceed one million dollars, and 178 shall receive in addition to that amount only the income during his or her life on an amount equal 179 to the value of one-third of the excess of the elective estate above one million dollars.

180 (b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of this section, if the 181 deceased left no issue, the surviving husband or wife shall take absolutely an amount equal to the 182 greater of fifty thousand dollars or one-half of the value of so much of the elective estate as does 183 not exceed one million dollars, and shall receive in addition to that amount only the income 184 during his or her life on an amount equal to one-third of the excess of the elective estate above 185 one million dollars.

186 (c) Except for an election under paragraph (e) of this section, if the deceased person and 187 the surviving husband or wife were married for less than fifteen years, then the surviving 188 husband or wife shall take the following percentage of the elective share amount otherwise 189 provided under (a) or (b) of this section.

190 (1) If the decedent and the spouse were married to each other for one year or less, 191 then sixteen percent of the elective share amount;

192 (2) for each additional year of marriage after the first, an additional six percent of the 193 elective share amount.

194 (3) For purposes of this section, the length of time the decedent and the surviving 195 spouse were married to each other shall be the sum of the lengths of all of their marriages to each 196 other.

197 (d) Except for an election under paragraph (e) of this section, an election under this 198 chapter shall be further limited to no more than the amount necessary to bring the value of the 199 property of the surviving husband or wife, after said election, to one-half the value of the 200 combined property of the elective estate of the deceased spouse and the elective estate of the 201 surviving husband or wife valued as if he or she had died contemporaneously with the deceased 202 spouse.

203 (e) If at the time of death of the deceased spouse, divorce proceedings were pending 204 and the parties had executed a written property settlement or the court had entered judgment 205 dividing their property which had not yet become final, the surviving husband or wife may elect 206 to take thereunder, which shall become the elective share for purposes of this chapter.

207 (f) Except for an election under paragraph (e) of this section, the surviving husband's 208 or wife's homestead allowance, exempt property, and family allowance, if any, are not charged 209 against but are in addition to the elective share.

210 Section 5. [Property included in and excluded from the Elective Estate.]

211 For purposes of this chapter, the elective estate includes:

212 (a) The decedent's probate estate, reduced by funeral and administration expenses, 213 homestead allowance, family allowances, exempt property, and enforceable claims; and

214 (b) The decedent's transfers by testamentary substitute, consisting of the decedent's 215 nonprobate transfers to others of any of the following types, in the amount provided respectively 216 for each type of transfer.

217 (1) Property owned or owned in substance by the decedent immediately before death 218 that passed outside probate at the decedent's death. Property included under this category 219 includes:

220 (i) Property over which the decedent alone, immediately before death, held a 221 presently exercisable general power of appointment. The amount included is the value of the 222 property subject to the power, to the extent the property passed at the decedent's death, by 223 exercise, release, lapse, in default, or otherwise, to or for the benefit of any person other than the 224 decedent's estate or surviving husband or wife.

225 (ii) The decedent's fractional interest in property held by the decedent in joint tenancy 226 with the right of survivorship. The amount included is the value of the decedent's fractional 227 interest, to the extent the fractional interest passed by right of survivorship at the decedent's 228 death to a surviving joint tenant other than the decedent's surviving husband or wife.

229 (iii) The decedent's ownership interest in property or accounts held in POD, TOD, or 230 co-ownership registration with the right of survivorship. The amount included is the value of the 231 decedent's ownership interest, to the extent the decedent's ownership interest passed at the 232 decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving 233 husband or wife.

234 (2) Property transferred in any of the following forms by the decedent during 235 marriage:

236 (i) Any irrevocable transfer in which the decedent retained the right to the possession 237 or enjoyment of, or to the income from, the property if and to the extent the decedent's right 238 terminated at or continued beyond the decedent's death. The amount included is the value of the 239 fraction of the property to which the decedent's right related, to the extent the fraction of the 240 property passed outside probate to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's 241 estate or surviving husband or wife.

242 (ii) Any transfer in which the decedent created a power over income or property, 243 exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any other person, or exercisable by a 244 nonadverse party, to or for the benefit of the decedent, creditors of the decedent, the decedent's 245 estate, or creditors of the decedent's estate. The amount included with respect to a power over 246 property is the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included with respect 247 to a power over income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income, to the 248 extent the power in either case was exercisable at the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any 249 person other than the decedent's surviving spouse or to the extent the property passed at the 250 decedent's death, by exercise, release, lapse, in default, or otherwise, to or for the benefit of any 251 person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse. If the power is a power over both 252 income and property and the preceding sentence produces different amounts, the amount 253 included is the greater amount.

254 (3) Property that passed during marriage and during the one year period next 255 preceding the decedent's death as a result of a transfer by the decedent if the transfer occurred 256 after the filing of divorce or separation proceedings and in violation of a restraining order, 257 injunction, or other order of the probate court restricting the transfer; and 258 (c) [Testamentary substitutes passing to surviving husband or wife] Excluding property 259 passing to the surviving husband or wife under the federal social security system, the value of the 260 elective estate includes the value of the decedent's transfers by testamentary substitute,

261 consisting of nonprobate transfers to the decedent's surviving husband or wife, of the following 262 types in the amount provided respectively for each type of transfer:

263 (1) the decedent's fractional interest in property held as a joint tenant with the right of 264 survivorship, to the extent that the decedent's fractional interest passed to the surviving husband 265 or wife as surviving joint tenant;

266 (2) the decedent's ownership interest in property or accounts held in co-ownership 267 registration with the right of survivorship, to the extent the decedent's ownership interest passed 268 to the surviving husband or wife as surviving co-owner; and 269 (3) all other property that would have been included in the elective estate under paragraphs 270 (b)(1) or (b)(2) or (b)(3) of this section had it passed to or for the benefit of a person other than 271 the decedent's spouse, the decedent, or the decedent's creditors, estate, or estate creditors.

272 (d) The value of property included in the elective estate is reduced in each category by 273 enforceable claims against the included property

274 (e) In case of overlapping application to the same property of the paragraphs or 275 subparagraphs of this section including property in the elective estate, the property is included in 276 the elective estate under the provision yielding the greatest value, and under only one 277 overlapping provision if they all yield the same value.

278 (f) [Property excluded from Elective Estate.]

279 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the following are excluded from the 280 elective estate:

281 (1) The value of any property is excluded from the decedent's transfers by 282 testamentary substitute to the extent the decedent received adequate and full consideration in 283 money or money's worth for a transfer of the property.

284 (2) The value of any property relinquished under section two of this chapter is 285 excluded from the elective estate.

286 (3) the value of proceeds of life insurance not payable to the decedent's estate is 287 excluded from the elective estate.

288 (4) The value of interests in community property arising under the community 289 property laws of other states is excluded from the elective estate.

290 (5) The value of a principal residence transferred to or for the benefit of a decedent 291 spouse's issue is excluded from the elective estate.

292 (6) The value of any property held in trust for the benefit of a disabled child or 293 grandchild of the decedent spouse is excluded from the elective estate.

294 (7) The value of any property transferred by testamentary substitute as defined in 295 section five (b)(one) and (two) prior to the effective date of this chapter is excluded from the 296 elective estate.

297 Section 6. [Proceedings for Elective Share; Time Limit].

298 (a) An election under this chapter shall be made by filing in the probate court a 299 petition for the elective share within the earlier of nine months after the date of the decedent's 300 death or six months after the surviving husband or wife receives notice of proceedings for 301 probate of the decedent's will or administration of the decedent's estate. The surviving husband

302 or wife may dismiss or withdraw his or her petition for an elective share, with prejudice, at any 303 time before entry of a final determination by the court and the expiration of the time for appeal 304 or, if an appeal is taken, at any time during the appeal or within ten days after rescript.

305 (b) If, after a will of the deceased is offered for probate, legal proceedings have been 306 instituted wherein its validity or effect is drawn in question, the probate court may within six 307 months, on petition and after such notice as it orders, extend the time for filing an election under 308 this chapter for a reasonable time not to exceed six months from the termination of such 309 proceedings.

310 (c) After the decedent's death and either before or after the filing of a petition for 311 election under this chapter, a surviving husband or wife has the right to receive all material 312 information regarding property that is or may be includible in the elective estate, within a 313 reasonable time after his or her request for such information, from the personal representative of 314 the decedent and from any person in possession or control of such property and from any person 315 with an interest in such property, and if necessary, the surviving husband or wife may apply to 316 the probate court for appropriate assistance in enforcing such right to information.

317 (d) Notice of the filing of the petition shall be given to persons interested in the estate 318 and to persons whose interests may be adversely affected by the taking of the elective share. The 319 proceeding for determination of the elective share may be maintained against fewer than all 320 persons against whom relief could be sought, but no person is subject to contribution in any 321 greater amount than would have been the case if relief had been secured against all such persons.

322 (e) Upon application by the surviving husband or wife, the probate court may allow 323 attachments, trustee process, specific orders for equitable relief, and such other writs and orders 324 as it deems meet and just to preserve property that is or may be includible in the elective estate.

325 (f) Upon application to the probate court after the death of the decedent by the 326 personal representative or a surviving husband or wife or other person interested in the elective 327 estate, the court may order that all or part of the property that is or may be includible in the 328 elective estate be paid pendent lite to persons entitled thereto in amounts and subject to 329 conditions consistent with this chapter.

330 (g) After notice and hearing, the court shall determine the amount of the elective 331 share and shall order its payment as provided in section seven of this chapter. If it appears that a 332 fund or property included in the elective estate has not come into possession of the personal 333 representative, or has been distributed by the personal representative, the court shall nevertheless 334 fix the liability of any person who has any interest in the fund or property or who has possession 335 thereof, whether as trustee or otherwise.

336 (h) The orders or judgments of the probate court shall be enforceable in the same 337 manner as other orders or judgments for the payment of money or for specific relief as to 338 particular assets. Interest shall accrue from the date of judgment at twelve percent per annum.

339 (i) In addition to the powers conferred in section ten of chapter two hundred and 340 eleven B, the chief justice for the probate and family court department may, from time to time, 341 provide procedural forms and make general rules and issue standing orders in reference to 342 practice and procedure as relates to the elective share of the surviving husband or wife, subject to 343 the approval of the supreme judicial court.

344 Section 7. [Liability for Satisfaction of Elective Share.]

345 (a) In a petition for the elective share under this chapter, there shall first be applied to 346 satisfy the elective share amount and to reduce or eliminate any contributions due from others, 347 property that passes or has passed or but for the election would have passed to the surviving 348 husband or wife as a result of decedent's death.

349 (b) Except as otherwise provided in the will or an instrument governing a 350 testamentary substitute, contribution to the remaining elective share amount to which the 351 surviving spouse is entitled shall be made pro-rata in proportion to the value of their interests in 352 the elective estate by the original recipients, beneficiaries, and distributees under the decedent's 353 will, by intestacy, and by testamentary substitute, which contribution may be made in cash or in 354 the specific property received from the decedent by the person required to make such 355 contribution or partly in cash and partly in such property as such person in his or her discretion 356 shall determine.

357 (c) No original recipient who shall conform to the standard of a Massachusetts 358 executor or administrator with respect to the care and management of assets included in the 359 elective estate or who shall hold all such assets in the form in which such original recipient 360 received them, shall be liable to the surviving spouse in an amount greater than the value of the 361 elective estate assets received by such original recipient, determined as of the date of distribution 362 or payment to the surviving husband or wife in satisfaction of such liability including interest, if 363 any, under section six (g) of this chapter. No beneficiary shall be liable to the surviving spouse 364 in an amount greater than the value of such beneficiary's share of the elective estate at the date of 365 distribution or payment to the surviving husband or wife in satisfaction of such liability including 366 interest, if any, under section six (g) of this chapter.

367 (d) [Protection of Subsequent Transferees]

368 A person, other than an original recipient, a beneficiary, or a payor, who receives 369 an asset included in the elective estate, whether for value or as a gift, shall not be liable under 370 this chapter for the value of the asset or any portion thereof, regardless of whether at the time 371 such asset was received such person had notice of the surviving spouse's intention to file a 372 petition for the elective share or notice that a petition for the elective share had been filed, unless 373 the transfer to such person was a fraudulent transfer as to the surviving husband or wife.

374 Section 8. [Protection of Payors and Other Third Parties.]

375 (a) [Nonexistence of Liens or Encumbrances.]

376 The elective share of a surviving husband or wife under this chapter shall not be 377 construed as imposing a lien or other encumbrance on any real or personal property, tangible or 378 intangible, includible in the elective estate.

379 (b) A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred 380 an item of property or other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument, or for 381 having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the validity of a governing instrument, 382 upon request and satisfactory proof of the decedent's death, before the payor or other third party 383 received written notice from the surviving spouse or the surviving spouse's representative that a 384 petition for the elective share has been filed. A payor or other third party is liable for payments

385 made or other actions taken after the payor or other third party received written notice that a 386 petition for the elective share has been filed.

387 (c) A written notice that a petition for the elective share has been filed must be 388 mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, 389 return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a 390 summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice that a petition for the elective share 391 has been filed, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed to or with the court having 392 jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate, or if no proceedings have 393 been commenced, to or with the probate court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating 394 to decedents' estates located in the county of the decedent's last known address. Subject to rule 395 or regulation of the probate court with respect to acceptable and unacceptable property, or on 396 motion with the approval of the probate court, and subject further to such terms and conditions as 397 the probate court may impose, a payor or other third party may transfer or deposit any item of 398 property held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to 399 the decedent's death, or if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the probate court 400 having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents' estates in the county of the 401 decedent's last known address. The court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its 402 determination of the elective share under this chapter, shall order disbursement in accordance 403 with the determination. If the petition for an elective share is withdrawn or dismissed, the court 404 shall order disbursement to the designated beneficiary. Payments or transfers to the court or 405 deposits made into court discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for amounts so 406 paid or the value of property so transferred or deposited.

407

408 The right of election provided under this chapter shall not create an interest, in any real or 409 personal property of a spouse, nor create any lien or encumbrance on any real or personal 410 property of a spouse, nor impair or impede or restrict in any way the right of a spouse to the 411 ownership and free transferability of his or her property.

412 Section 9. [Real Estate.]

413 An election under this chapter shall not divest, encumber or have any operation or effect on any 414 interest in real or personal property held by any third party.

415 Section 10. This act shall be effective for estates of persons dying on or after January one, two 416 thousand thirteen.
