HOUSE . . . . . No. 217

By Representative Schmid of Westport, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 217) of Paul A. Schmid, III relative to income calculation for certain benefits paid for necessary work-related travel expenses for certain persons with developmental or intellectual disabilities. Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act relative to income calculation of certain benefits.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 123B Section 16 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding following 2 paragraphs: -

3 For the purposes of this section, the term “necessary work-related travel expenses” shall 4 mean any expenses incurred for the purposes of commuting to work.

5 The department shall deduct certain necessary work-related travel expenses for persons
6 with a developmental disability or an intellectual disability when calculating an individual’s
7 income for the purposes of determining charges pursuant to this section. Necessary work-related 8 travel expenses shall be deducted if:

9 (i) an individual uses a vehicle to travel to work and that vehicle requires structural or 10 operational modifications that are directly related to the individual’s disability and critical to the 11 individual’s operation or use of the vehicle. The department shall deduct the costs of the

12 modifications and a mileage allowance at a rate determined by the Federal Highway
13 Administration;

14 (ii) an individual uses driver assistance, taxicabs, or other hired vehicles to travel to work.
15 The department shall deduct amounts paid for the hired vehicle service;

16 (iii) an individual uses public transportation to travel to work. The department shall 17 deduct amounts paid for public transportation services; or

18 (iv) an individual is unable to use public transportation or a hired vehicle service to travel
19 to work due to their disability and uses an unmodified vehicle to travel to work. The department
20 shall request documentation from a physician or other source to verify that the need to drive is 21 caused by the individual's disability. If the department receives verification, the department shall 22 deduct a mileage allowance at a rate determined by the Federal Highway Administration.

23 SECTION 2. Section 9A of chapter 118E of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 24 amended by adding the following paragraph:-

25 (17) For the purposes of determining financial eligibility for persons with a 26 developmental disability or an intellectual disability, as defined in section 1 of chapter 123B, the 27 division shall deduct certain necessary work-related travel expenses pursuant to section 16 of 28 chapter 123B from the applicant's income, if applicable.
