HOUSE No. 2397

By Mr. Kuros of Uxbridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2397) of Kevin J. Kuros and others for an investigation by a special commission (including members of the General Court) of alternatives to naloxone and to broaden the availability of naloxone . Mental Health, Substance Use and Recovery.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act creating a commission to study increasing access to naloxone.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any special or general law there shall be a special 2 commission to study the alternatives and develop recommendations to broaden the availability of 3 naloxone without prescription, including but not limited to recommendations on the standing 4 order process, the collaborative practice agreement process, and/or legislative recommendations.

5 The special commission shall consist of: the secretary of health and human services or 6 their designee, who shall serve as chair; the commissioner of the division of insurance or their 7 designee; three members to be appointed by the governor, which shall include: one person who is 8 a prescribing physician, one person who is a stakeholder within a retail pharmacy company, and 9 one member of the general citizenry impacted by the opiate epidemic; two members of the house 10 of representatives, one of whom to be appointed by the minority leader; two members of the 11 senate, one of whom to be appointed by the minority leader; the director of the board of 12 pharmacy or their designee; the director of the bureau of substance abuse services or their

13 designee; provided, however, that the first meeting of the commission shall take place not later
14 than January 1, 2018.

15 The special commission shall submit its recommendations, together with drafts of any 16 legislation, to the clerks of the house of representative and the senate, the chairs of the joint 17 committee on mental health and substance abuse not later than May 1, 2018.
