HOUSE No. 250

By Mr. Markey of Dartmouth, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 250) of Christopher M. Markey and others for legislation to further regulate the business of secondary metals dealing. Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act regulating secondary metals dealings..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 140B, the 2 following chapter:-

3 CHAPTER 140B½ SECONDARY METAL DEALING

4 For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings
5 unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

6 “Engaging in a business”, a regular occupation or constant employment; not an isolated 7 or occasional transaction.

8 “Metal” or “metal article”, any substance or article consisting of metal or a metal alloy 9 but excluding aluminum beverage containers if such containers have a refund value pursuant to 10 section 322 of chapter 94.

11 “Registration”, process by which the scrap metal dealer will file a form at the local 12 municipal police station which will be addressed to the local police chief which will include 13 basic information regarding the scrap metal facility. Such form shall list the name of the 14 registrant, nature of the business and address and contact information.

15 “Secondary metals dealer”, any business, individual, corporation, association or 16 organization engaged in secondary metals dealing for profit.

17 “Secondary metals dealing”, engaging in a business , from a fixed location or otherwise,
18 of gathering or obtaining metal or metal articles that are no longer in use and the economic value

19 thereof is based upon the metal or article's potential for re-use or upon the worth of the raw 20 material of which such article is made.

21 SECTION 2. (a) In accordance with Section 4 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, no 22 person shall carry on the business of being a scrap metal processor, collector of, dealer in or 23 keeper of a shop for the purchase, sale, and barter of junk, scrap metal commodities, old metals
24 or second hand articles without filing a registration form with the municipality's chief of police 25 or designee.

26 (b) All registrations under this section shall be made on a form or forms to be prescribed
27 by the licensing authority, as prescribed in Section 1 of this Act and shall set forth the name of 28 the registrant, the nature of the business and the building or place in the city or town in which it 29 is to be carried on.

30 (c) The fee for such registration shall be determined by the chief of police or his 31 designee. Societies, associations or corporations organized solely for religious or charitable 32 purposes shall not be required to pay a fee for such registration. No registrations shall be 33 transferred without prior consent of the chief of police and all registrations shall be posted on 34 the registrant's premises in a conspicuous place and manner.

35 (d) Every registration issued under this section shall expire on May first following the 36 date of issue.

37 (e) The chief of police or designee may grant an exemption to any one or more of the 38 requirements in sub-section (c) for a particular transaction. A request for an exemption must be 39 made by the registrant in writing to the chief of police or designee stating the reason for the 40 request. The chief of police or designee shall approve or disapprove the request and send written 41 notification of the decision to the registrant. The chief of police or designee, in his/her 42 discretion may impose any terms, conditions, restrictions on any exemption granted under this 43 section.

44 (f) Any person carrying on the business of being a collector of, dealer in or keeper of a
45 shop for the purchase, sale, barter of junk, old metals or second hand articles without registration
46 or in violation of this section shall be assessed a fine in the amount established by the Secretary
47 of Public Safety.

48 SECTION 3. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 49 section 54A the following new section:- Section 54B. A dealer registered under section 54 shall 50 comply with the following procedures when purchasing any metal product. 1. The Dealer shall 51 keep a daily transaction log, in the English language. The log information will include: a. Name, 52 date of birth and residence of the person with whom such a transaction was made, or company or 53 organization name and principal address with whom such a transaction was made; b. The date 54 and time when such a transaction occurred; c. The price paid for the article; d. A description of 55 the article, including type, weight and quantity; e. The license plate number and state of issue of 56 the vehicle being used by the person offering the article to transport the article to the registrant's 57 place of business. f. A written statement from the person offering the article stating that he or she 58 is in lawful possession of the article being offered. 2. A secondary metals dealer may not accept 59 or purchase new production scrap or new materials that are part of a manufacturing process, from 60 any individual, who is not company affiliated or an authorized contractor of the manufacturer,

61 municipality, government or utility. 3. The record file shall be retained by the Dealer for a 62 period of one (1) year from the date of the transaction. Accompanying documentation may be 63 destroyed following the one year period. If documentation is stored electronically said 64 documents must be stored or backed-up by any current electronic means and may be deleted at 65 the completion of the one year period. 4. The Dealer shall ascertain the identity of an individual 66 selling the metal s by requiring him to produce any state-issued photo identification, and 67 maintaining a copy of the same in the record of transaction. 5. The Dealer shall ascertain the 68 identity of any business, organization, society, corporation etc., selling the metals by requiring 69 him to provide a Massachusetts or state-issued identification number, and maintaining a copy of 70 the same in the record of transaction. 6. During the one year period, the log shall be open for 71 inspection by the state and local police upon reasonable request. 7. Failure to comply with the 72 above procedures shall be cause for the revocation of the dealer's registration.

73 SECTION 4. (a) Following notification, either verbally or in writing, from a law 74 enforcement officer that certain scrap materials have been reported as stolen, a scrap processor or 75 recycling facility operator that is in possession of the scrap material in question shall hold that 76 scrap material intact and safe from alteration, damage or commingling and shall place an 77 identifying tag or other suitable identification upon the scrap material.

78 (b) A law enforcement officer making a verbal request shall provide the scrap processor 79 or recycling facility operator, upon request, with the officer's name, badge number and 80 department contact telephone number so that the scrap processor or recycling facility operator
81 may call back to confirm the identity of the law enforcement officer.

82 (c) Within 24 hours of notification by the law enforcement officer or 24 hours of the 83 receipt of the material, whichever is later, the scrap processor or recycling facility operator shall 84 notify the law enforcement officer that scrap material matching the law enforcement officer's 85 description is on the premises.

86 (d) The scrap processor or recycling facility shall hold the scrap material for a period of 87 time as directed by the applicable law enforcement agency, up to a maximum of 48 hours
88 following notification, unless extended pursuant to sub-section (f) of Section 4 of this section.

89 (e) A law enforcement officer shall not place a hold on any scrap material unless that law
90 enforcement officer reasonably suspects that the scrap material is lost or stolen. The request to 91 hold scrap material shall be as specific as possible by using descriptive language, including, but

92 not limited to, the type and style of the material, length or weight or any other such description to 93 identify the material to be held. Any hold that is placed on scrap material shall not exceed 48 94 hours, and the scrap material must be returned to the owner or released when the hold has been 95 released or has expired.

96 (f) A holding period may be extended beyond 48 hours only upon the order of a
97 magisterial district judge after the magisterial district judge has determined that probable cause
98 exists that the scrap material is lost or stolen.

99 (g) A scrap processor or recycling facility operator that receives material that does not 100 meet the description materials being sought by a law enforcement officer may dispose of that 101 material at its discretion.
