The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to establishing a disaster emergency tax credit.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. Chapter 62, is hereby amended by inserting after Section 6, the following 2 section:-

3 Section 7. Any owner or tenant of residential property the who is not a dependent of 4 another taxpayer and who occupies said property as his principal residence, directly impacted by 5 a “Presidential Declaration of Emergency or Disaster” authorized under Title V of the Stafford 6 Act shall be allowed a disaster emergency tax credit provided that an individual shall have 7 completed an application for federal disaster assistance and registered with Federal Emergency 8 Management Agency and the Small Business Administration and have been denied relief and 9 provided further, an individual is qualified for the earned income credit, pursuant to the 10 provisions of Section 6. of Chapter 62 of the Code as amended and in effect for the taxable year.

11 The credit shall be equal to 25 percent of the net expenditure for replacing personal 12 property not covered by Federal Emergency Management Agency or Small Business 13 Administration or 1,200 dollars whichever is more, provided that the credit shall not exceed 14 1,500 dollars.

15 Section 2. As used in this section the following words shall have the following 16 meaning:-

17 “Residence” the building or portion thereof, including a mobile home, owned or rented 18 and occupied by the taxpayer as the taxpayer’s primary dwelling during the taxable year. The 19 residence may consist of a part of a multi unit purpose building.

20 “Tenant of residential property” a person providing consideration for occupation of a 21 dwelling place located in Presidential Declared State of Emergency counties in the 22 Commonwealth, who is not a dependent of another taxpayer and who occupies said property as 23 his principal residence.

24 “Personal property” durable items purchased as a direct result of a disaster and ineligible
25 for assistance under Federal Emergency Management Agency and Small Business
26 Administration.

27

28 Section 3. Joint owners of a residential property shall share any credit available to the 29 property under this subsection in the same proportion as their ownership interest.

30 Section 4. Any credit provided by this subsection shall not be counted as income in 31 determining eligibility or benefits under any other means tested under any other means-tested 32 assistance program including but not limited to all such cash, food, medical, housing, energy and 33 educational assistance programs.

34 Section 5. The Commissioner for Department of Revenue shall promulgate rules and 35 regulations to carry out the purpose of this act.
