HOUSE No. 2606

By Mr. Hunt of Sandwich, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2606) of Randy Hunt and others relative to establishing a special commission (including members of the General Court) to make an investigation and study of the feasibility of simplifying the personal income tax code. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to creating a commission to study the feasibility of simplifying the personal income tax code.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There shall be a special commission to study the feasibility of simplifying
2 the personal income tax laws of the Commonwealth. The commission shall consist of the 3 commissioner of administration, or his designee; the commissioner of revenue, or his designee;
4 the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on revenue, or their respective designees; the 5 senate and house minority leaders, or their respective designees; 3 individuals appointed by the 6 governor; provided, 1 shall be a tax attorney, 1 shall be a certified public accountant, and 1 shall 7 be the head of a non-profit public policy institution; 3 individuals appointed by the president of 8 the senate; provided, 1 shall be a tax attorney, 1 shall be a certified public accountant, and 1 shall 9 be the head of a non-profit public policy institution; 3 individuals appointed by the speaker of the 10 house; provided, 1 shall be a tax attorney, 1 shall be a certified public accountant, and 1 shall be 11 the head of a non-profit public policy institution. The commission shall make a comprehensive 12 study of the feasibility of simplifying the personal income tax laws of the Commonwealth; 13 provided, the study will address the impact of establishing a new formula to calculate the 14 personal income tax; provided, the personal income tax, for purposes of the study, shall equal a 15 percentage of federal taxable income; provided, the new formula shall have a minimal effect on 16 tax revenue. The study shall include, but not be limited to, determining if the new formula 17 calculating personal income tax shall be applicable to all taxpayers; determining if the new 18 formula shall have any effect in mitigating fraud, waste, and abuse by taxpayers; and,
19 determining if the new formula shall mitigate audit activity as conducted by the department of 20 revenue. The commission shall convene its first official meeting not later than August 1,

21 2013. The commission shall prepare a report of the findings and recommendations together with 22 recommendations for legislation to implement those recommendations by filing the same with 23 the clerks of the senate and house not later than July 31, 2014.
