The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act allowing Deina Abdelkader to become a member of the state employee retirement system.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 "SECTION 1. (a) Notwithstanding section 60 of chapter 176 of the Acts of 2011 or any

2 other general or special law to the contrary, Deina Abdelkader, an employee of the University of

3 Massachusetts, may, within 30 days of the effective date of this act elect to become a member of

4 the state employees' retirement system. Deina Abdelkader shall provide written notice of such

5 election to the state retirement board and the department of higher education.

6 (b) Upon such election to become a member of the state employees' retirement system 7 Deina Abdelkader shall discontinue participation in the optional retirement program established 8 under subsection 3 of section 40 of chapter 15A of the General Laws. Such election shall be 9 irrevocable and shall result in the forfeiture of all benefits, rights and privileges associated with 10 the optional retirement program. SECTION 2. (a) Notwithstanding section 4 of chapter 32 of the General Laws or any other general or special law to the contrary, upon electing to become a member of the state employees' retirement system, Deina Abdelkader shall purchase creditable service for: (i) the service she rendered for the University of Massachusetts from August 31, 2008 until the date her membership in the state employees' retirement system is effective; and (ii) any membership in the state employees' retirement system immediately preceding August 31, 2008.

17 (b) The purchases for creditable service in subsection (a) shall be in 1 lump sum or in 18 installments upon such terms as the state retirement board may provide; provided however, that 19 said purchases shall be in the amount equal to the contributions Deina Abdelkader and the 20 commonwealth as her employer would have otherwise paid into the state employees' retirement 21 system had she been a member, plus investment gains and actuarial-assumed interest for the 22 years spent as an actively contributing member in the optional retirement program, compounded 23 annually, through December 31, 2013. The retirement board shall calculate and report the cost to 24 purchase said creditable service to Deina Abdelkader and the department of education within 90 25 days of receiving notice of her election to enroll in the state employee retirement system.

(c) Within 30 days of receiving the cost to purchase her creditable service, Deina Abdelkader shall: (i) instruct the department of higher education to effect a trustee to trustee transfer of all of her employee assets from the optional retirement program to the state employee retirement system; (ii) instruct the department of higher education to effect a trustee to trustee transfer of all of her employer assets from the optional retirement program to the state employee transfer of all of her employer assets from the optional retirement program to the state employee transfer of all of her employer assets from the optional retirement program to the state employee retirement system; (iii) establish a transfer payout annuity with TIAA in order to begin the liquidation of all optional retirement program assets held in TIAA's traditional account; and (iv)

2 of 3

instruct the department of higher education to provide confirmation of said transfer payoutannuity to the state retirement board.

(d) Upon Deina Abdelkader's election to purchase the creditable service in subsection (a) and prior to the date that any retirement allowance becomes effective, she shall pay into the annuity savings fund of the state employees' retirement system, in 1 sum or installments, upon such terms and conditions as the state employees' retirement system may prescribe, an amount equal to the accumulated regular deductions that would have been deducted from her regular compensation if she was admitted to membership in the state employees' retirement system on August 31, 2008.

(e) Upon entry in the state employees' retirement system, Deina Abdelkader shall complete and submit a state employees' retirement system enrollment form to the office of human resources and equal opportunity and outreach of the University of Massachusetts at Lowell and provide written instruction to said office to discontinue her employee contributions to the optional retirement program and initiate her employee contributions to the state employees' retirement program.

48 (f) For the purposes of this act, the state employees' retirement system shall recognize 49 Deina Abdelkader's participation in the optional retirement program as creditable service under 50 the state employees' retirement system."
