The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act for health education in women's correctional institutions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after Section
- 2 16A the following new sections:—
- 3 Section 16B. Upon admission to a correctional institution and at anytime thereafter, the health
- 4 services unit in each correctional institution where women are incarcerated shall make available
- 5 to all women written information on women's health, contraception, and sexually transmitted
- 6 infections. A user-friendly brochure containing the aforementioned information shall be created
- 7 by the department of public health and distributed in the women's native languages.

8 Section 16C. Not less than four months prior to the date of release for a female prisoner of child 9 bearing age, the medical director of the correctional institution where the prisoner is incarcerated
10 shall offer the prisoner contraception counseling and a gynecological exam including a Pap Test.
11 Following said counseling, the medical director shall offer to provide her with the form of 12 contraception she so chooses including but not limited to: female condoms, male condoms, 13 diaphragm, cervical cap, intra-uterine device, prescription birth control, or contraceptive
14 sponges. If the prisoner selects a type of contraception that must be taken for a period of time 15 before it becomes effective, then the prisoner shall begin the regimen not less than three months
16 prior to her date of release. Said medication shall be distributed during regular medication
17 distribution. Upon her release, the medical director shall furnish the woman with a twelve month
18 prescription to refill her medication, a referral to a pharmacy or doctor where said prescription 19 can be refilled, and a referral to a primary care physician or gynecologist for follow up care.

20 SECTION 2. Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after Section
21 96B the following new section:—

22 Section 96C. The superintendent of each correctional institution where women are incarcerated 23 shall at all times offer a course on health education open to all eligible women incarcerated in 24 said institutions. The course shall include, but not be limited to, the following topics: general 25 health, nutrition, mental health, women's health concerns, domestic violence, substance abuse, 26 sexually transmitted infections, contraception, emergency contraception, sex education, and 27 pregnancy. Said course shall be developed in consultation with the commissioner of public 28 health.
