26 268A as they apply to special state employees. The commission shall be an independent agency
27 of the government of the commonwealth and shall not be subject to the control of any other 28 department or agency.

29 (a) Initially, members of the commission shall be appointed to staggered three year terms,
30 so that six members are appointed for three-year terms, six members are appointed for two year

41 and any other officers it deems necessary.

42 (e) The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but 43 shall be reimbursed for any usual and customary expenses incurred in the performance of their 44 duties.

45 SECTION 3. The Office shall serve as a research and policy clearinghouse for issues
46 critical to the welfare and vitality of rural communities, including but not limited to economic

53 promote collaboration among rural communities to improve efficiency in delivery of services;
54 develop and support new leadership in rural communities.

55 SECTION 4. The powers of the commission shall include but not be limited to the 56 following: (a) to use such voluntary and uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies
57 and organizations as may from time to time be offered and needed; (b) to recommend policies

69 public in accordance with the Open Meeting Law per Sections 18-25 of Chapter 30A as so
70 appearing in the 2012 General Laws and shall include time for public input and comment.

71 (a) The commission may request from all state agencies such information and assistance
72 as the commission may require.

73 (b) The commission may accept and solicit funds, including any gifts, donations, grants

75 deposited in a separate account with the state treasurer, be received by said treasurer on behalf of 76 the commonwealth, and be expended by the commission in accordance with law.

77 SECTION 6. The commission shall annually, on or before June 2, report the results of its 78 findings and activities of the preceding year and its recommendations to the Governor and to the 79 clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives.
