By Mr. Ashe of Longmeadow, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 305) of Brian M. Ashe and others for legislation to regulate pet daycare facilities in cities and towns. Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

An Act to regulate pet daycare facilities in cities and towns, aka Ollie's Law.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. This bill may be known as An Act to regulate pet daycare facilities in cities
2 and towns aka Ollie’s Law.

3 SECTION 2. Chapter 129 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 4 section 39G a new section:-

5 39H. Every person engaged in the business of operating a commercial boarding or 6 training kennel, as defined in section 136A of chapter 140, shall obtain a license thereof from the 7 director. This license shall be in addition to a kennel license requirement under section 137A of 8 chapter 140.

9 The director, subject to the approval of the governor, shall make rules and regulations 10 governing the issuance and revocation of such licenses and the conduct of the kennels so 11 licensed and relative to: staff to dog ratios, group sizes and supervision, minimum housing and

12 care requirements, indoor and outdoor physical facility requirements, dog handling, insurance, 13 fire and emergency plans, and penalties for violation thereof.

14 The director shall approve required training programs regarding animal behavior, dog 15 body language, and other subjects as determined by the director for staff employed at any 16 commercial boarding or training kennel.

17 The director shall require that licensed commercial boarding or training kennels report
18 injuries to dogs or people. The department shall develop a form for such reporting and a time 19 frame for submitting a report after the injury. The form shall be available on the department's 20 website to the public to report injuries. The department shall make investigative reports available 21 to the public on their website.

22 The director may require other types of kennels, as defined in section 136A of chapter 23 140, to be obtain a license from the director, subject to the approval of the governor, may make 24 rules and regulations for kennels relating to animal care and health.

25 SECTION 3. Section 137A of chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 26 inserting at the end of subsection (b), the following:-

27 A commercial boarding or training kennel under section 39H of chapter 129 shall be 28 required to obtain a kennel license under this section.

29 SECTION 4. There shall be a committee to advise the commissioner of agricultural 30 resources on the promulgation of regulations as required by Section 39H of Chapter 129, and to 31 annually review the regulations once promulgated. The committee should advise on issues 32 including, but is not limited to, appropriate training for kennel staff. Such committee shall be

33 appointed by the commissioner and consist of: 1 representative from the department of 34 agricultural resources; 1 owner of a boarding kennel or doggie daycare with a kennel license
