Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after subparagraph (13), the following 3 subparagraph:

4 (13A) In the case where the taxpayer is engaged in the trade or business of farming in the 5 commonwealth, as defined in section 1A of chapter 128, and makes a charitable contribution of 6 food from such farm trade or business, a charitable contribution deduction shall be allowed to the 7 taxpayer under subparagraph (13); notwithstanding, the deductibility limitation based on the 8 prior year’s tax rate on Part B taxable income under said subparagraph. Subject to the provisions 9 of this subparagraph, the requirements, conditions and limitations, for charitable deductions for 10 contributions of food inventory under section 170(e) of the Code, as amended, shall apply to 11 determine the amount of the allowed deduction.

12 For the limited purpose of determining the amount of the allowable deduction for any 13 charitable contribution of food, the taxpayer may elect an alternate cost basis for such 14 contributed food, equal to 25 per cent of the food's fair market value, regardless of whether the 15 taxpayer is required to account for inventories or capitalize indirect costs under the Code.

16 A food contribution shall not qualify for an allowable deduction under this subparagraph, 17 unless in addition to such other requirements: (i) the contributed food complies with the 18 applicable quality and labelling standards of "apparently wholesome food" as defined under 42
19 U.S.C. 1791(b)(2), of the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act, in effect when this 20 subparagraph was enacted; and, (ii) the donee that accepts the contributed food from the 21 taxpayer, is a charitable organization located in the commonwealth that is exempt from federal 24 needy, or infants in Massachusetts.

25 SECTION 2. Chapter 63 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 26 section 38FF, the following section:

27 Section 38GG. In determining the net income subject to tax under this chapter a 28 corporation for profit engaged in the trade or business of farming in the commonwealth, as 29 defined in section 1A of chapter 128, shall be allowed a deduction for charitable contributions of 30 food by the corporation to a charitable organization. The term "charitable organization" for the 31 purposes of this section, shall mean an organization exempt from federal taxes under section 32 501(3)(c) of the Code, excluding private foundations, that is located in the commonwealth and

40 contributed food, equal to 25 per cent of the food's fair market value, regardless of whether the 41 corporation is required to account for inventories or capitalize indirect costs under the Code.

42 A food contribution shall not qualify for an allowable deduction under this section, 43 unless, in addition to such other requirements, the contributed food complies with the applicable
44 quality and labelling standards of "apparently wholesome food" as defined under 42 U.S.C.
