An Act relative to reentry from segregation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1: Section 39 of Chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014
2 official edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

3 Any prisoner who is within six months of his or her mandatory release date or parole
4 release date shall not be placed in segregation unless the commissioner, or his or her designee,
5 certifies in writing that the presence of the prisoner in the general population would pose a 6 serious risk of harm to others, or themselves, and all other less-restrictive options have been 7 exhausted.

8 SECTION 2: Chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 official edition, 9 is hereby amended by inserting after section 39A the following new section:-

10 SECTION 39B. Reentry from segregation

11 Any prisoner within six months of his or her mandatory release date or parole release 12 date and who is held in segregation shall have meaningful access to reentry programming 13 including but not limited to: housing assistance, assistance obtaining state and federal benefits,

14 employment readiness training, and programming designed to help the person rebuild 15 interpersonal relationships, such as anger management and parenting courses.

16           The department shall prepare a reentry plan for every person who is held in segregation at 17 any point within six months of his or her mandatory release date or parole release date.
