HOUSE No. 496

By Mr. Jones of North Reading, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 496) of Bradley H. Jones, Jr. and others for an investigation by a task force (including members of the General Court) relative to the fiscal viability of establishing private school tuition deductions. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to establishing a private school tuition deduction task force.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 There shall be a special task force to review and report on the fiscal viability of 2 establishing a private school tuition deduction program in the commonwealth. The task force
3 shall consist of 9 members: the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on education or 4 their designees, who shall serve as the co-chairs of the task force; a member of the general court
5 appointed by the senate minority leader; a member of the general court appointed by the house
6 minority leader; the executive director of the Association of Independent Schools in New
7 England, or a designee; the executive director of the Massachusetts Charter Public School
8 Association, or a designee; and 3 persons to be appointed by the secretary of education , 1 of 9 whom shall be an employee of the commonwealth in the office of the secretary of education, 2 of 10 whom shall be selected from the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary 11 Education.

12 The task force shall: (i) identify and review the state laws, regulations, and administrative 13 directives that relate to private school tuitions; (ii) identify the citizens that would best benefit 14 from tuition deduction within the commonwealth; (iii) require the department of education to 15 submit reports to the legislature based on demographic, fiscal, and educational impact; and (iv)
16 develop recommendations to establish legislative procedures to provide funding, regulate, and 17 grant private school tuition deduction programs in Massachusetts.

18 The task force shall submit a report, including any draft legislation and regulations, to the 19 clerks of the house of representatives and the senate within 12 months of the passage of this act.
