5 duties of a police officer.

6           (b) The annual amount of pension payable to Richard Seibert shall be equal to the regular 7 rate of compensation which would have been paid had he continued in service as a police officer

13 allowance, may annually earn up to 1/2 the amount of his retirement allowance without refund 14 penalty.

15 (d) Upon attaining the mandatory retirement age for a police officer of the town of 16 Braintree, Richard Seibert shall receive a pension pursuant to section 7 of said chapter 32, a 24 and 100B of chapter 41 of the General Laws.

25 SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the Braintree 26 retirement board shall forthwith pay to said Richard Seibert the amount credited to him as 27 accumulated total deductions in the annuity savings fund of the Braintree retirement board as of 28 the effective date of this act.

29 SECTION 4. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, if Richard 30 Seibert was married on the effective date of this act then, upon his death, if he is still married to 35 shall be subject to section 103 of chapter 32 of the General Laws.

36 SECTION 5. In the event that both Richard Seibert and his spouse to whom he was

38 that would otherwise have been made to his spouse shall be payable, per stirpes, to each 39 surviving children under the age of 18; provided, however, that payments shall continue for the 40 benefit of a surviving child 18 years or older who, on or before the date of death of Richard 41 Seibert or his spouse to whom he was married on the effective date of this act, whichever is later, 42 had been medically determined to be permanently physically or mentally incapacitated from 44 determined by the criteria of the educational institution.
