The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act establishing a student tuition recovery fund.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 12 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 11N thereof
2 the following new section:-

3 Section 11O. (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context 4 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

5 “Assessment,” the amount a for-profit school is required to pay to the Student Tuition 6 Recovery Fund.

7 “Board of Higher Education,” the board of higher education established in section 4 of 8 chapter 15A.

9 “Cost of attendance,” the same meaning as defined in 20 U.S.C. section 1087ll.

10 “Division of Professional Licensure,” the division of professional licensure established in 11 section 8 of chapter 13.

12 “Economic loss,” pecuniary loss which is equivalent to the cost of attendance, plus any 13 amount the institution collected from the student and failed to pay to third parties on behalf of 14 the student for license fees or any other purpose, excluding grants provided by government 15 agencies for which the student’s eligibility for further grants is not changed by prior grant 16 receipt, and excluding legal fees, attorney fees, court costs, arbitration fees, or non-pecuniary 17 damages such as inconvenience, aggravation, emotional distress, or punitive damages.

18 “For-profit school,” a private post-secondary institution established, operated, or 19 incorporated for profit-making purposes, including any for-profit institution of higher education 20 that offers courses for credit or programs leading to a certificate, diploma, or degree. This shall 21 include all private post-secondary institutions established, operated, or incorporated for profit-22 making purposes that advertise or do business within Massachusetts, including schools that 23 provide programs, services, courses, or instruction, in whole or in part, through electronic means 24 or on the Internet to students residing in Massachusetts, regardless of whether such schools
25 maintain a campus, facility, or physical presence in Massachusetts; are licensed to operate, either 26 by the Division of Professional Licensure or the equivalent regulatory or licensing body in 27 another jurisdiction; or are authorized by the Board of Higher Education, or the equivalent 28 regulatory or licensing body in another jurisdiction, to grant degrees.

29 “Fund,” the Student Tuition Recovery Fund established in subsection (b).

30 “Person injured,” a student of a for-profit school which charges prepaid tuition who 31 suffered an economic loss because of the school’s discontinuation of one or more of its 32 educational programs, failure to fulfill its contractual obligations, failure to comply with 33 licensing requirements and provisions pursuant to section 263 of chapter 112, failure to comply

34 with prohibitions against unfair and deceptive practices as provided in 940 C.M.R 31.00 et seq., 35 or conduct that would provide the person with a defense to repayment or false certification 36 discharge of federal student loans under federal law; provided that “person injured” shall include, 37 without limitation:

38 (i) any student who was enrolled in a school’s educational program or on a medical or 39 approved leave of absence at the time that the program was discontinued, as applicable, who did 40 not complete the program of study through a teach-out at another school approved either by the 41 Division of Professional Licensure or the Board of Higher Education or by transferring all 42 academic credits or hours earned to another school so approved;

43 (ii) any student who withdrew from a school’s educational program within the 120-day 44 period before the program was discontinued or within a period longer than 120 days if the 45 attorney general determines there was a decline in the quality of education during that time 46 period prior to discontinuation and thus authorizes a longer eligibility period;

47 (iii) any student to whom a school has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the 48 school in excess of tuition and other costs;

49 (iv) any student who has been awarded restitution, a refund, a loan defense or discharge, 50 or other monetary award by an arbitrator, court, or the federal government, based on a violation
51 of section 263 of chapter 112, a violation of 940 C.M.R 31.00 et seq., or conduct that provided 52 the person with a defense to repayment or false certification discharge of federal student loans 53 under federal law, but who has been unable to either collect the award or obtain relief for the full 54 amount of their economic loss;

55 (v) any student who is covered by government findings that would make them eligible for 56 a borrower defense to repayment of federal student loans;

57 (vi) any student who has been unable to collect a refund from a school in accordance with 58 the provisions of section 13K of chapter 255; or

59 (vii) any student who was enrolled in a school's educational program who did not meet 60 the program's minimum entrance requirements.

61 "Prepaid tuition," money advanced to an educational institution before it provides its 62 service.

63 "School," a for-profit school as defined in this section.

64 (b) There shall be a Student Tuition Recovery Fund established and administered by the 65 attorney general. The fund shall fully reimburse all persons injured, who may recover from the 66 fund an amount not to exceed their actual economic loss sustained. The attorney general shall 67 promulgate rules and regulations necessary to administer the fund. In administering the fund, the 68 attorney general may:

69 (1) pursue a lender, holder, guarantee agency, or the United States Department of 70 Education for the full or partial cancellation or discharge of student loan obligations to relieve 71 students of economic loss and thereby reduce the liability of the fund;

72 (2) after notifying the student, pay a student's claim directly to the lender, holder,
73 guarantee agency, or the United States Department of Education under a federally guaranteed 74 student loan program; provided, however, that the payment must satisfy all or a commensurate

75 part of the student's loan obligations related to attendance at the institution for which the claim 76 was filed;

77 (3) delay the payment of a claim pending the resolution of its attempt to obtain a 78 cancellation or discharge of the claimant's student loan obligation; provided, however, the 79 attorney general shall not delay payment of the claim if the attorney general has notice of any 80 adverse action that is not stayed taken against the claimant, including the commencement of a 81 civil or administrative action, tax offset, the enforcement of a judgment, or the denial of any 82 government benefit, provided that there are sufficient funds available to pay the claim.

83 (c) Each for-profit school which collects prepaid tuition shall annually pay an assessment 84 to the fund in an amount consistent with the following:

85 (1) Each new for-profit school shall make an initial payment of $2,500 into the fund.

86 (2) Beginning in the year that begins on January 1, 2018, each for-profit school in 87 operation shall make a payment into the fund in the amount of 0.25 percent of the school's gross 88 tuition and fees received by the school during the prior year,

89 (3) Beginning in the year that begins on January 1, 2019, and for each year thereafter, 90 each for-profit school in operation shall make a payment into the fund in an amount determined 91 by the attorney general as necessary to meet the fund's needs, provided that the amount shall not 92 exceed 0.5 percent of a school's gross tuition and fees received by the school during the prior 93 year.

94 (4) The minimum amount of the annual payment into the fund is $250, to be paid by each 95 school.

96 (d) The attorney general shall make an accounting at the end of each year. If at the end of 97 any year, the accounting indicates that the fund contains $5,000,000 or more, then during the 98 next year an assessment may not be made against the schools. If the moneys in the fund are 99 insufficient to satisfy duly authorized claims, the attorney general may reassess the schools as 100 necessary, in addition to the annual assessment, and the schools shall pay the additional amounts 101 assessed.

102 (e) A person injured by a for-profit school is eligible to submit a claim against the fund.
103 A claim against the fund shall not be commenced later than six years after the date upon which 104 the person injured formally separated from the school. If the attorney general determines that a 105 claim is valid, the attorney general shall pay the claim in the amount it considers reasonable. The 106 money deposited in the fund shall be continuously appropriated to the attorney general to carry 107 out the purposes of the fund. The attorney general may use up to five percent of the fund per year 108 to administer the fund.

109 (f) For those for-profit schools licensed to operate by the Division of Professional 110 Licensure, pursuant to section 263 of chapter 112, the division may not issue a license to, and 111 may revoke any certificate of approval previously issued to, a school that fails to pay an 112 assessment or reassessment to the fund.

113 (g) For those for-profit schools authorized to grant degrees by the Board of Higher 114 Education, pursuant to sections 30A and 31A of chapter 69, the board may not approve, or may 115 revoke any previous approval, to a school that fails to pay an assessment or reassessment to the 116 fund.

117 (h) If claims are made by persons injured against a for-profit school licensed to operate
118 by the Division of Professional Licensure, or if a school ceases operations, the attorney general 119 may notify the guarantor of the surety bond or the holder of other form of indemnification that 120 the school is required to furnish under section 263 of chapter 112. If funds become available 121 from the surety bond or other form of indemnification, any unencumbered funds from that bond 122 or indemnification shall be used to reimburse the fund for payments previously made to persons 123 injured by the school's ceasing operations.

124 (i) Unexpended and unencumbered money in the fund at the close of a fiscal year shall 125 not revert to the General Fund.

126 (j) The attorney general may allocate any unencumbered restitution funds awarded to the 127 state from a lawsuit or settlement involving a for-profit school to reimburse the fund for 128 payments previously made to persons injured by that school.

129 (k) The attorney general may make an additional assessment against a for-profit school or 130 otherwise seek reimbursement to the fund from a school for a claim that was paid because of that 131 school's violation of the law.
