, NO. 82 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act protecting and improving the Emergency Aid to the Elderly, Disabled and Children (EAEDC) program.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1: Section 1 of chapter 117A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following words:-

3

4 A person who is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter, and who is 5 maintaining his or her own home,

6 shall receive monthly benefits no less than the payment standard in effect in fiscal year

7 2011. The Department is further

8 authorized and directed, subject to appropriation, to increase said payment standard 9 through an annual cost of living

10 adjustment until said payment standard is equal to the same amount of benefits otherwise 11 provided to an assistance unit

12 of the same size eligible under chapter 118 of the General Laws.

13

14 Said chapter 117A, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after section 10 the 15 following section:-

16

17 Section 11: Representation to secure federal disability benefits

18

19 To maximize the receipt of federal benefits and to maximize reimbursement of interim 20 assistance paid by the 21 Commonwealth under this chapter, the Department shall implement a program to 22 provide legal advice and

23 representation to disabled recipients in order for said recipients to secure Supplemental 24 Security Income benefits

25 administered by the Social Security Administration.

26 SECTION 2: Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, in determining 27 eligibility for the program of emergency aid to elders, disabled and children under chapter 117A
28 of the General Laws, the department of transitional assistance shall provide benefits to persons 29 under age 21 who are regularly attending a full-time grade school, high school, technical or 30 vocational school not beyond the secondary level, and who the department determines are 31 homeless or in imminent risk of becoming homeless or are otherwise considered 32 unaccompanied youth as defined by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education in 33 accordance with federal law. Such students must meet other generally applicable eligibility 34 requirements for the program and the income of assets of any legally liable persons who live 35 with said student shall be considered in determining the financial eligibility for benefits under 36 this chapter.
