The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

Proposal for a legislative amendment to the Constitution to declare that corporations are not people, money is not speech.

A majority of all the members elected to the Senate and House of Representatives, in joint session, hereby declares it to be expedient to alter the Constitution by the adoption of the following Article of Amendment, to the end that it may become a part of the Constitution [if similarly agreed to in a joint session of the next General Court and approved by the people at the state election next following]:

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

1 Corporations are not people and may be regulated. The rights afforded to the human
2 inhabitants of the commonwealth, under this constitution, are not applicable to corporations,
3 limited liability companies or any other corporate entity. Any references to persons, citizens,
4 inhabitants, subjects, men, people, individuals or like terms in this constitution, are not to be
5 construed in any way to be referring to a corporation, limited liability company or any other
6 corporate entities.

7 Corporations, limited liability companies and any other corporate entity shall do business
8 in this state under the regulation of laws passed by the general court which shall set the rights of 9 such entities to do business to promote the common good and strengthen the social compact of 10 this commonwealth.

11 Money is not free speech and may be regulated. To protect our political process and the 12 functioning of government to serve in the best interests of the citizens of the commonwealth,
13 money shall not be considered free speech. The general court shall have the power to regulate the 14 raising and spending of money and in-kind equivalents for any primary or election of a public
15 official and for ballot measures. This shall include regulation of any advertising for or against 16 any candidate in a primary or election for public office and any ballot measure.

17 Nothing contained in this amendment shall be construed to restrain the liberty of the 18 press.
