The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act requiring mental health parity for disability policies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 108 of chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 2 adding the following:-

3 "13. No individual policy of short-term or long-term disability insurance providing 4 income replacement benefits that is issued or renewed in the Commonwealth shall discriminate
5 against persons disabled due to a mental health condition. "Mental health condition" is defined 6 as any condition or disorder involving mental illness or substance use that falls under any of the 7 diagnostic categories listed in the mental, behavioral or neurodevelopmental disorders section of 8 the international classification of disease, as periodically revised. Discrimination includes:

9 1. Limiting benefits or excluding coverage for disabilities on the basis that the disability
10 results from a mental health condition as defined herein.

11 2. Limitations on benefits or coverage exclusions for any disability resulting from a 12 mental health condition that are not applied equally to all disabilities."

13 SECTION 2. Section 110 of chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 14 adding the following subsection:-

15 "Q. No certificate of coverage under a group policy of short-term or long-term disability
16 insurance providing income replacement benefits that is issued or renewed in the Commonwealth
17 shall discriminate against persons disabled due to a mental health condition. "Mental health 18 condition" is defined as any condition or disorder involving mental illness or substance use that 19 falls under any of the diagnostic categories listed in the mental, behavioral or 20 neurodevelopmental disorders section of the international classification of disease, as 21 periodically revised. Discrimination includes:

22 1. Limiting benefits or excluding coverage for disabilities on the basis that the disability
23 results from a mental health condition as defined herein.

24 2. Limitations on benefits or coverage exclusions for any disability resulting from a
25 mental health condition that are not applied equally to all disabilities."

26 SECTION 3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit periodic medical exams or 27 other procedures reasonably calculated to determine whether or not a disability exists, or 28 continues to exist; provided said examinations, procedures or protocols are comparable and no 29 more frequent or onerous than those required for disabilities caused by physical disorders.
