An Act relative to compensation for victims of wrongful conviction.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 9 of Chapter 211D of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking subsection (e) and inserting in place thereof the 3 following words:

4           (e) a method for the provision of social services including, but not limited to, referrals for 5 transitional services relating to the physical, social, and emotional needs of persons after release 6 from incarceration.

7           SECTION 2. Chapter 211D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by inserting after 8 section 16 the following section:

9           Section 17. The Committee shall establish, supervise and maintain a system for the 10 assignment of social service advocates to assist indigents who are eligible for transitional 11 assistance under Chapter 258D of the General Laws section 10(B).

12           SECTION 3. Section 1 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 13 amended by striking subsection (B)(ii) and inserting in place thereof the following words:-

14           (ii) those who have been granted judicial relief by a state court of competent jurisdiction, 15 on grounds consistent with the innocence of the individual as set forth in clause (vi) of 16 subsection (C), provided however that if the state court granting judicial relief does not address 17 all grounds for relief, as asserted in an appeal or a motion for post-conviction relief, and if at 18 least one of such grounds is consistent with innocence, the grounds asserted in such motion may 19 be relied upon by the claimant to satisfy the requirement that there are grounds which are 20 consistent with innocence, and if (a) the judicial relief vacates or reverses the judgment of a 21 felony conviction, and the felony indictment or complaint used to charge the individual with 22 such felony has been dismissed, or if a new trial was ordered, the individual was not retried and 23 the felony indictment or complaint was dismissed or a nolle prosequi was entered, or if a new 24 trial was ordered and the individual was found not guilty at the new trial; and (b) at the time of 25 the filing of an action under this chapter no criminal proceeding is pending or can be brought 26 against the individual by a district attorney or the attorney general for any act associated with 27 such felony conviction.

28           SECTION 4. Section 1(C) of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 29 striking the words “clear and convincing” and inserting in place thereof the following words:- “a 30 preponderance of the”.

31 SECTION 5. Section 1 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 32 striking subsection (G) and inserting in place thereof the following:-

33 (G) A claimant shall be entitled to preliminary relief under subsection (E) of section 5 34 upon filing a complaint pursuant to this chapter that avers that the claimant meets the eligibility 35 requirements as stated in subsection (B) above.

36 SECTION 6. Section 3 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 37 adding at the end the following words:- In any event a case filed pursuant to this chapter shall be 38 placed on a fast track.

39 SECTION 7. Section 5 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 40 striking subsection (A) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

41 (A) Upon a finding or verdict that the claimant has met the requirements of section 1 by 42 the requisite standard of proof and is not barred from compensation by section 2, the court or the 43 jury shall determine the damages that shall be payable to the claimant. In making such 44 determination, the court or jury shall consider, but not be limited to, the consideration of: the 45 income the claimant would have earned, but for his incarceration; the particular circumstances of 46 the claimant's trial and other proceedings; the length and conditions under which the claimant 47 was incarcerated and; any other factors deemed appropriate under the circumstances in order to

48 fairly and reasonably compensate the claimant. The court, in its discretion, may admit 49 expert testimony on these or any factors. The court may include, as part of its judgment against 50 the commonwealth, an order requiring the commonwealth to provide the claimant with services 51 to address the individual's physical, social, and emotional needs and waive tuition and fees for 52 the claimant for any educational services from a state or community college in the

53 commonwealth including, but not limited to, the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and its 54 satellite campuses. Once the damages have been determined, the court shall enter a judgment 55 against the commonwealth for the claimant in an amount certain. A judgment against the 56 commonwealth may not include punitive or exemplary damages. The total liability of the 57 commonwealth for any settlement or award of damages entered as part of a judgment under this 58 chapter shall not exceed $1,000,000 for up to 10 years of imprisonment, $2,000,000 for up to 20
59 years of imprisonment, $3,000,000 for up to 30 years of imprisonment, $4,000,000 for up to 40
60 years of imprisonment, or $5,000,000 for over 40 years of imprisonment. These limits shall not 61 include any transitional assistance grant or award of services, tuition or fees under Sections 5(A)
62 or (E) or Section 10 or any award of reasonable attorney fees and costs of litigation as provided
63 in section 6 below. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the clerk of court 64 shall not add to the judgment and the commonwealth shall not be liable for paying, any 65 prejudgment or post judgment interest on damages. Subject to section 4, relative to award or 66 settlements, the rights and remedies afforded to certain individuals by this chapter are not 67 intended to limit in any way any rights or remedies that such individuals or other individuals may 68 be entitled to exercise and pursue under common law or under any other state or federal statute
69 including without limitation chapter 258 and 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

70 SECTION 8. Section 5 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 71 striking subsection (E) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

72 (E) Upon a ruling in favor of a claimant moving for preliminary relief under subsection 73 (G) of section 1, the court shall enter an order requiring the commonwealth to provide the 74 claimant with a transitional assistance grant of $15,000 and services to address the claimant's 75 physical, social, and emotional needs and waive tuition and fees for the claimant for any

76 educational services from a state or community college in the commonwealth including, but not 77 limited to, the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and its satellite campuses.

78 SECTION 9. Section 6 of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 79 inserting after the word “chapter,” the following words:- “, or who enters into a settlement 80 agreement with the commonwealth in connection with a claim asserted under this chapter”.

82 striking subsection (A) and inserting in place thereof the following words:-

83 (A) Upon the entry of a judgment in favor of a claimant under this chapter or upon 84 settlement of a claim brought pursuant to this chapter and following a separate hearing on the 85 matter, on motion of the claimant the court shall enter an order either directing the expungement
86 or sealing of those records of the claimant maintained by the department of criminal justice
87 information services, the probation department, and the sex offender registry that directly pertain 88 to the claimant's erroneous felony conviction case, including documents and other materials and 89 any samples obtained from the claimant. The commonwealth, as well as any other law 90 enforcement agency that may be directly affected by such expungement or sealing of such 91 records including, but not limited to, the district attorney that prosecuted the felony case against 92 the claimant, shall be given reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard on the issue of 93 whether such records, documents and materials shall be so expunged or sealed. In making its 94 determination as to whether such records, documents and materials shall be so expunged or 95 sealed, the court shall consider the interests of privacy and justice pertaining to the claimant's 96 erroneous felony conviction as well as the probable effect of such expungement or sealing on 97 relevant law enforcement entities and their ability to appropriately investigate and prosecute

98 other persons for the felony which forms the basis of the claim or other crimes that may relate to 99 the information contained in such records, documents and materials. In addition to an order 100 directing expungement or sealing of the record, a claimant who prevails in a claim brought under 101 this chapter by way of judgment or settlement, shall be entitled to an order and judgment, signed 102 by a Judge of the Superior Court, which shall attest that the claimant has been exonerated of the 103 subject crime or crimes.

104 SECTION 11. Section 7 (B) of Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by 105 inserting after the words “conducted by the court,” the following words:-

106 “on motion of the claimant”

107 SECTION 12. Chapter 258D of the General Laws, is hereby amended by inserting after 108 section 9 the following:-

109 Section 10. Transitional Assistance for Persons Released from Incarceration for 110 Erroneous Felony Convictions

111 (A) Upon a person's release from incarceration for an erroneous felony conviction as 112 defined in Section 1(B), the trial court in which the conviction originated shall order payment of 113 transitional financial assistance in the amount of $5000 to the formerly incarcerated person.

114 (B) Upon the release from incarceration of an indigent person whose felony conviction is 115 vacated, reversed, or pardoned, the trial court in which the conviction originated shall, upon 116 motion demonstrating indigency, authorize funds for a social service advocate from the 117 Committee for Public Counsel Services’ approved vendor list to assist the formerly incarcerated

118 person in obtaining transitional services including, but not limited to, referrals for their physical, 119 social and emotional needs.
