RESOLVE to study the financial impact of the nexus between the insurance industry and law enforcement

Resolved,

1           That a special commission is hereby established for the purpose of conducting an 2 investigation and study of the nexus between law enforcement and the insurance industry. The 3 commission shall specifically examine the level of cost savings achieved by the auto insurance
4 industry as a result of the involvement of law enforcement in the following areas: traffic safety
5 and enforcement, accident reconstruction, theft and vandalism, the investigation of insurance 6 fraud, data sharing and administrative support. The commission shall consider the extent of the 7 savings as it pertains to each individual policy holder, policy grouping, or individual insurance
8 company. The commission shall also outline how industry cost savings have been handed down 9 to consumers as a result of the partnership with law enforcement.

10           The commission shall conduct at least 2 public hearings.

11           The commission shall consist of the secretary of public safety and security, who shall 12 serve as chair of the commission; the commissioner of insurance; house and senate chairs of the 13 joint committee on financial services; house and senate chairs of the joint committee on public 14 safety and homeland security; the colonel of state police or his designee; the executive director

15 of the municipal police training committee, the executive director of the merit rating board, a 16 representative from the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association, and 3 representatives from 17 the insurance industry as selected by the commissioner of insurance.

18           The commission shall issue a report to the general court with the results of its 19 investigation and study no later than July 1st, 2011.
