SENATE No. 1258

By Mr. Richard T. Moore, a petition (accompanied by resolve, Senate, No. 1258) of Richard T. Moore for legislation relative to an investigation and study by a special commission relative to the civil service exam. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

Resolve providing for an investigation and study by a special commission relative to the civil service exam.

1 Resolved,
2 That there shall be a special commission to make an investigation and study of the civil 3 service examination conducted by the human resources division of the commonwealth. The 4 commission shall consist of the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on state
5 administration and regulatory oversight, who shall serve as chairs of the commission; the house 6 and senate chairs of the joint committee on public safety and homeland security; the house and 7 senate chairs of the joint committee on public service; the secretary of the executive office for 8 administration and finance, ex-officio; the secretary of the executive office of public safety, ex-
9 officio; the chairman of the civil service commission established pursuant to section 4I of chapter
10 7 of the General Laws; a representative appointed by the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police
11 Association; a representative appointed by the Fire Chiefs Association of Massachusetts; a 12 representative appointed by the Massachusetts Municipal Association; a representative of the 13 Massachusetts Coalition of Police; a representative appointed by the Municipal Police Coalition;
14 a representative appointed by the Massachusetts State Fraternal Order of Police; a representative 15 appointed by the Massachusetts Correction Officers Federated Union; a representative appointed 16 by the State Police Association of Massachusetts; a representative appointed by the 17 Massachusetts Environmental Police Officers Association; and a representative appointed by the 18 Professional Firefighters of Massachusetts.

19 The commission’s study shall include a review of: (i) the merits of the civil service 20 examination in identifying qualified applicants for municipal and state employment; (ii) the 21 timeliness of examinations and the pronouncement of scores; (iii) the satisfaction of participating 22 municipalities and government entities in posting vacant positions and securing timely 23 appointments of qualified employees; (iv) the ability of the test to adequately evaluate the skill

24 and aptitude necessary for a candidate to perform the duties associated with the position sought;
25 and (v) any related questions relative to the effectiveness and value of the continued use of a 26 civil service examination in identifying qualified, capable candidates for employment in the 27 commonwealth.

28 The commission shall report to the clerks of the house and senate the results of its 29 investigation and study, and its recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation
30 necessary to carry such recommendations into effect by filing them on or before June 30, 2014.
31 The commission may issue preliminary or interim reports to the general court before said date.
