The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to senior citizen property taxes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Clause Eighteenth of section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 446, the word 3 “and” and inserting in place thereof the following word:— or.

4 SECTION 2. Clause Forty-first A of said section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as 5 so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting, in line 1062, after the words “the property 6 or” the following words:— one year after

7 SECTION 3. Subsection (k) of section 6 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as so 8 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (2) and inserting in place thereof the 9 following paragraph:—

10 (2) An owner or tenant of residential property located in the commonwealth, who is 65
11 years of age or older, who is not a dependent of another taxpayer and who occupies said property
12 as his principal residence, shall be allowed a credit equal to the amount by which the real estate
13 tax payment or the rent constituting real estate tax payment exceeds 8 per cent of the taxpayer's 14 total income, but the credit shall not exceed $1,000.

15 SECTION 4. (a) There is hereby established the elderly and disabled person's tax relief 16 outreach program for the purposes of assisting elderly and disabled residents of the 17 commonwealth in obtaining information about available options designed to provide limited 18 relief from state and local taxes.

19 (b) The state secretary shall administer the program in conjunction with the secretary of 20 the executive office of elder affairs and the commissioner of the department of revenue.

21 (c) In order to assist interested persons in obtaining the information, the outreach program 22 shall:

23 (1) create and distribute literature outlining all tax relief programs for the elderly 24 and disabled, including those providing relief from state and local taxes and describing the 25 benefits and eligibility criteria for each option;

26 (2) organize presentations and workshops to better facilitate the awareness and 27 education of elderly and disabled persons in the tax-related issues that concern them, what relief 28 is available to them and the application process for such relief programs; and

29 (3) create and maintain a statewide toll free telephone number staffed by 30 individuals qualified to inform and advise interested and potentially eligible persons about 31 available options designed to provide limited relief from state and local taxes.

32 (d) The state secretary, in consultation with the secretary of the executive office of elder 33 affairs and the commissioner of the department of revenue shall promulgate regulations 34 necessary to implement the elderly and disabled person's tax relief outreach program.
