SENATE No. 1511

By Mr. Lewis (by request), a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1511) of Vincent Lawrence Dixon for legislation for a literacy tax credit. Revenue.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court
(2015-2016)

An Act for a literacy tax credit.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Massachusetts General Laws are hereby amended by inserting the
2 following new chapter:-

3 Chapter 78B Literacy Tax Credit

4 Section 1. An Act to create a Literacy Tax Credit (LTC), under the Laws of 5 Massachusetts, providing for a Tax Credit, to certain qualified individuals, for specific assistance
6 in helping individuals to gain literacy.

7 Section 2. The quality of literacy, learning, and education, being the specific, and proper
8 concern of the Great and General Court since the 1630s, and 1640s, therefore, this Act is created 9 and established, in order that the literacy, and productive economy of the people, and the many
10 individuals of The Commonwealth, may be further improved.

11 Section 3. Each person wishing to become literate, should be tested for their level of 12 literacy and competence, by reasonable standards to be established. Each existing literate person,

13 who wishes to participate in helping to improve literacy, can register their willingness to do so,
14 through various recognized educational organizations.

15 Section 4. A Literacy Training Lesson Program (LTLP) shall be created. Any person
16 being brought to literacy through an ‘LTLP’ shall be recognized by a Literacy Certificate (LC).
17 The person helping to bring them to literacy, designated as a Literacy Sponsor (LS), shall be 18 rewarded at such point, by a Literacy Tax Credit (LTC) of no less than $750, and up to $2200,
19 such amount to be adjustable based on further analysis.

20 Section 5. Appropriate standards shall be set by the Massachusetts Department of 21 Education, identifying the standards to be used, in approving those individuals, who wish to 22 assist other individuals to become literate.

23 Section 6. Other relevant standards, and regulations, shall be established. Detailed 24 recording of the results of this program, shall be kept, and regularly analyzed, so that the 25 program may be measured, improved, and adjusted for effectiveness.
