The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to economic development tax credits.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 1 of Chapter 62C, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby 2 amended by inserting the following new subsections in the definition of “tax credit program”
3 after subsection (xi):-

4 (xii) the investment tax credit in section 31A of chapter 63, (xiii) the abandoned building
5 renovation deduction in section 38O of chapter 63.

6 Section 2. Said Chapter 62C, as appearing in the 2012 Official edition, is amended by 7 inserting after section 89 the following:-

8 Section 90. Sunsets for Tax Credit Programs

9 (a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, all tax credit programs 10 shall expire after a period of three years unless reauthorized by an act of the legislature after 11 review and examination of the effectiveness of each such tax credit program by the department 12 of revenue and the executive office of administration and finance's office of commonwealth
13 performance, accountability and transparency.

14 (b) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, all tax credit 15 programs existing and in effect at the time of the passage of this law, shall expire after one year
16 of the date of the passage of this law unless reauthorized by an act of the legislature after review 17 and examination of the effectiveness of each such tax credit program by the department of 18 revenue and the executive office of administration and finance's office of commonwealth
19 performance, accountability and transparency.

20 Section 3. Said chapter 62C, as appearing in the 2012 official edition, is hereby amended
21 by inserting after section 90 the following:-

22 Section 91. In any review and examination of a tax credit program, the department of 23 revenue and the office of commonwealth accountability, performance and transparency shall, in 24 addition to any other analysis deemed appropriate by the agencies, identify and develop metrics 25 for assessing the effectiveness of each tax credit program at achieving its identified purposes and 26 outcomes, identify revenue foregone, beneficiaries and distribution of amounts received, and the 27 number of jobs created ,if applicable. After completion of such review and examination, the 28 agencies shall issue a report to the governor and legislature's committees on way and means and 29 post audit and oversight. Except for the reports on the examination of tax credit programs under 30 section 90(b), the report shall be completed one year before the expiration date of the tax credit

31 program which is the subject of the report. In any report issued by the agencies after the review 32 and examination of any tax credit program, the report, based on the agencies' examination of the 33 tax credit program, studies and data from other states and academia, shall make 34 recommendations for elimination or modification of the tax credit program to more effectively 35 achieve the tax credit programs identified public policy purposes.

36 Section 4. Said chapter 62C, as appearing in the 2012 official edition, is hereby amended
37 by inserting after section 91 the following:-

38 Section 92. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, all tax credit 39 programs shall contain and include a clawback provision, so called, that permits the 40 commonwealth to recoup foregone tax receipt from tax credit program recipients who fail to 41 achieve or meet stated goals and benchmarks, including but not limited to job creation goals set 42 forth in their tax credit program.

43 Section 5. Said chapter 62C, as appearing in the 2012 official edition, is hereby amended
44 by inserting after section 92 the following:-

45 Section 93. Before submitting any new tax credit program for legislative approval, the 46 governor shall include in the governor's legislative proposal or bill for the new tax credit 47 program the following: (a) the new tax credit program's clearly specified public policy purpose
48 and desired outcome, (b) a finding that the tax credit program is expected to be highly effective 49 at achieving the stated public policy purposes, (c) estimates of foregone revenue from the new 50 tax credit program, (d) for discretionary grant like tax credit programs an overall annual dollar 51 cap on foregone revenue, (e) for discretionary grant like tax credit programs, the criteria to be 52 applied by the administering agency in making discretionary awards of tax credit programs and

53 (f) for discretionary grant like tax credit programs, provisions for the tax credit program's 54 administration including, but not limited to, (i) clear written conditions and commitments,(ii)
55 public disclosure of recipients and tax benefits, (iii) if tax credit program conditions are not met 56 by the recipient, threshold for further review and enforcements including the use of the tax credit 57 program's clawback provision, and (iv) a competitive award process.
